

GDPR Data Privacy Notice

As part of providing our courier and logistics services, clients may be required to provide certain personal data to Zed Logistics. This notice explains how we collect, process, store, and protect personal information in accordance with the UK GDPR, the Data Protection Act 2018, and our internal Data Protection Policy.

Zed Logistics is committed to ensuring that all personal data is handled lawfully, securely, and confidentially at all times.

Our Data Protection Commitments

Zed Logistics agrees to:

1. Process personal data lawfully, fairly, and securely.
2. Use personal data only for legitimate business and operational purposes.
3. Ensure all data collected is relevant, accurate, and kept up to date where necessary.
4. Protect personal data against unauthorised access, loss, misuse, or disclosure.
5. Retain personal data only for as long as necessary.
6. Process data in accordance with the rights of the data subject under applicable legislation.
7. Ensure all staff are trained and aware of their data protection responsibilities.
8. Regularly review and update data protection procedures and security measures.
9. Respond to Subject Access Requests within the required legal timeframe.
10. Ensure any third parties with access to personal data are subject to confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations.
11. Securely destroy paper records and confidential documents when no longer required.

All personal data handled by Zed Logistics will be treated as strictly confidential and managed in line with applicable data protection laws.
