1st Scrutiny: Woman at the Well

Journaling

1. How does Jesus' willingness to speak with the Samaritan woman challenge cultural, social, or personal barriers in your own life?
2. In what ways has Jesus met you "where you are" in your own journey?
3. Jesus speaks of "living water" that satisfies forever. What "wells" do you turn to that leave you spiritually thirsty?
4. Jesus says true worshipers will worship the Father "in spirit and truth." What does that mean for your prayer life and participation in the Mass?

Lenten Soup

Faith Sharing

- How can you open yourself more fully to the life-giving grace of the Holy Spirit?
- The woman leaves her water jar behind to tell others about Jesus. What “water jars” (old habits, fears, or attachments) might you need to leave behind to follow Him more freely?
- How does this story inspire you to see the dignity of every person, regardless of their past?
- How can you make your worship more authentic and heartfelt this week?
