Ephesians 3:20

"Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all we ask or imagine, according to the power at work within us."

MESSAGE FROM ADAM

Dear Corinth family,

For one hundred and sixty-five years, God has been faithful to Corinth Christian Church. Again and again, we've seen Him change lives through the gospel of Jesus. We have been blessed to see marriages healed, ministries thrive, and a generation of new believers grow up in our midst.

But as we look around today, we sense that God is writing a new chapter, one that calls us to dream bigger, trust deeper, and reach farther than ever before. I believe this next season is another invitation to trust Him for more.

We're calling it Immeasurably More—a two-year discipleship and generosity journey. This isn't just about a building. It's about making room for people to find hope in Jesus, advancing the gospel near and far, and drawing closer to those who are hurting and often unseen.

We're asking every person to pray, listen, and take a faith-stretching step. When we all take that step together, something powerful happens: unity, generosity, and faith rise in our church.

That's why our primary prayer is 100% participation. We don't want anyone to miss out on the excitement and the challenge of being a part of what God is doing in our church and in US. It's going to be amazing.

My prayer is that God does a deep work in each of us that fuels what He wants to do through all of us. Let's raise our sails together and see where the Spirit leads. I'm grateful to be in this with you.

May God stretch you and strengthen you as you ask, "What does immeasurably more look like for me?"

Blessings,

Adam Turner
Senior Pastor

VISION

To be a church home for every generation.

Win people to Jesus. Train them as disciples.
Send them out to impact their world.

OUR PRIMARY GOAL

100% ENGAGEMENT

Bold Spiritual Growth Through Generosity

At Corinth, we're praying for 100% engagement from everyone who calls this church home. We're inviting our entire church family to go on a journey of the heart—trusting that in God's eyes, generosity is never just a financial transaction; it's a step of faith and a mark of transformation.

Immeasurably More is about growing our trust in God, aligning our hearts with His mission, and discovering the joy that comes from surrendering everything to Him. As we each take a step of courageous obedience, we believe God will do far more than we could ever imagine—both in us and through us.

OUR SECONDARY GOAL

$8 MILLION OVER TWO YEARS

More Ministry. More Impact.

We're trusting God to do immeasurably more through the ministry of Corinth Christian Church as we continue to invest in what He's already using to change lives week after week.

Over the next two years, $4 million will go toward our ongoing ministry budget. This investment fuels everything from Sunday worship to kids and student ministries, groups, outreach, care, and the unseen systems that make life change happen every single week.

We believe the local church should be the greatest source of hope in the community where God has placed it. Walton County should be better because God's people—changed by Jesus—are living out the gospel in tangible ways.

OUR SECONDARY GOAL

$8 MILLION OVER TWO YEARS

More Space. More Stories.

We've used every inch of our current auditorium to help people find hope in Jesus—and yet there are still so many more He wants to reach. Four services and tight transitions have pushed this space to its limits, and we believe it's time to take a bold step of faith toward what's next.

This $4 million investment will serve as a significant down payment toward a $14 million expansion—one that will create a new auditorium, expand our early childhood spaces, and allow our teens to use the current auditorium as their own. It will also include a new “backyard” green space, improved parking, and a DOT-approved acceleration/ deceleration lane to make access safer and smoother for everyone.*

This project is about creating space for God to move—space for more people to bump into Jesus, discover hope, and take their next step in faith.

 The total projected construction cost is $14 million, $4 million of which is expected to be funded through gifts from the Immeasurably More initiative, $2 million of which is expected to be funded from current cash reserves, and the remainder of which is expected to be funded through financing efforts.*

ONE FUND EXPLANATION

What Is a One Fund?
If you've ever been part of a church campaign, you may remember being asked to give a second gift "above and beyond" your regular offering—often to something called a Building Fund.

While that approach can work, it can also be confusing—especially for those new to generosity or still learning what consistent giving looks like. It can even make it difficult to celebrate the full impact of what God is doing through our church family.

That's why Immeasurably More is a One Fund initiative.
For the next two years, every dollar given to Corinth Christian Church will go toward one unified mission. There won't be separate "general" or "building" funds—just one fund supporting everything God is doing in us and through us.

- This One Fund will fuel everything God is doing through Corinth:
- Ongoing Ministry: From kids and students to outreach, care, and worship
 - Future Expansion: Building a new auditorium, creating new spaces for ministry, and making room for more people to find hope in Jesus

Instead of separating "normal giving" from "campaign giving," Immeasurably More invites us to see all generosity as part of one mission—to trust God together for more than we could ever imagine.

SERMON SERIES

WEEK 1: IMMEASURABLY MORE VISION

Message Notes

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Discussion Questions:

1. Adam said “we live in a world obsessed with more.” How have you seen the worldly pursuit of more rob people (maybe even you) of the immeasurably more that God wants to bring?
2. This isn't just a fund-raising season. It's a faith building season. What's the difference? How do you imagine our faith will grow here at Corinth?
3. “If we can dream it, God's already beyond it.” What does that sentence mean to you? How does Ephesians 3:14-21 help us understand that truth?

WEEK 1: SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION

READ: Ephesians 3:14-21

Questions:

1. In this video, Adam used three illustrations. His Kia, his kids, and an architect's table. Which one resonated with you the most, and why?

2. God's Power Before Our Plans Paul prays for inner strength before he ever mentions "immeasurably more." Where do you sense God might be working in you right now—before He works through you? What might that formation look like in this season?

3. Expanding Capacity Through Love The deeper we experience Christ's love, the larger our vision becomes. How has experiencing God's love in the past changed what you dared to ask Him for? What could it look like for your heart to "expand" again?

4. Alignment Over Achievement "Prayer doesn't just change what we ask for; it changes why we ask." When you think about your current prayers or dreams, what might God be reshaping in your motives or desires right now?

WEEK 2: IMMEASURABLY MORE TRUST

Message Notes

[illegible]

Discussion Questions:

1. They Gave Themselves First. Before they gave money, the Macedonians “gave themselves first to the Lord.” Why do you think surrendering your heart always comes before generosity? How does giving yourself fully to God change the way you view what you have?
2. The message said, “You can’t live an immeasurably more life while giving God your leftovers.” What are some ways we unintentionally give God what’s left—of our time, focus, or finances? What might it look like for you to put Him first in one of those areas this week?
3. How did Ernie and Trinh’s story inspire, encourage, or challenge you?

WEEK 2: SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION

READ: Ephesians 3:14-21; Proverbs 3:9-10

1. Giving is called "the metronome of discipleship." Where in your life do you tend to "play by feel" instead of letting God set the rhythm? What might steady, consistent trust look like for you right now?

2. Solomon says, "Honor the Lord with your wealth..." What's the difference between honoring God with our resources and just obeying a financial rule? How does that shift your view of giving?

3. "God multiplies what we surrender." How have you seen that in what others have invested in you? How have you seen it in what you've surrendered?

4. Firstfruits, not leftovers. Why do you think God asks for the first and best rather than the rest? What does giving first reveal about your priorities or trust? When has there been a time that you gave first even when it seemed to be impossible?

WEEK 3: IMMEASURABLY MORE COURAGE

Message Notes

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Discussion Questions:

1. What do you hear from the Wallace Family Testimony? What steps of courage were you inspired by most?
2. Seeing the Wind. Peter started to sink when he shifted his focus from Jesus to the storm. When are you most likely to “see the wind”—to lose sight of Jesus because of fear, pressure, or uncertainty? What helps you realign your focus on Him in those moments?
3. Jesus didn’t calm the storm first; He called Peter into it. Where might God be calling you to take a courageous step before the storm settles— in your family, your generosity, and your obedience? What’s one small, concrete way you can step out this week?

WEEK 3: SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION

READ: Ephesians 3:14-21; Joshua 3:13-17

1. Describe an experience where you hesitated and missed out (like Adam and apple stock) or where you stepped forward in faith and did something that was outside your comfort zone and were amazed.

2. In Joshua 3, the water didn't part until the priests' feet hit the river. Why do you think God often waits for us to step first before He shows His power? How have you seen that pattern in your own life?

3. Adam said, "When the priests obeyed, the miracle didn't just bless them — it blessed everyone behind them." Tell about some obedience that has paved the way for your blessing. What do you think will be happening 25 years from now at Corinth?

4. What is a “personal Jordan River” for you? Something that naturally stands in the way of living out the generous faith you want to? How can we pray for each other to step out in faith and boldness?

WEEK 4: IMMEASURABLY MORE IMPACT

Message Notes

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Discussion Questions:

1. What jumped out to you from the video with the Boivin Family? The impact of one simple invite can change the direction of someone's entire future for God's glory! Who might be one person you need to invite to experience immeasurably more?
2. What do you think most people mean when they say they want to make an "impact"? How is the biblical picture of impact (Acts 4:32–35) different from how culture defines it?
3. The message contrasted the man in Luke 12 (who built bigger barns) with Barnabas (who built the Kingdom). What helps anchor your giving, serving, and obedience in eternity rather than comfort? How might living that way change the kind of "impact" you're remembered for?

WEEK 4: SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION

READ: Ephesians 3:14-21; Philippians 4:14-19

When you think about people who “planted shade trees” in your life or faith journey, who comes to mind — and how has their generosity impacted you?

Paul trusted that “God will meet all your needs according to His riches.” What does it look like to believe that promise — especially when giving feels risky or costly? Tell a story about you or someone that has demonstrated this really well.

Paul said generosity “shares in my troubles.” How does giving — of time, money, or encouragement — make you feel connected to what God is doing in someone else’s life? How have you felt supported when someone else shared in your troubles?

We're all "sitting in the shade" of someone else's sacrifice. What kind of shade tree do you want to plant for the next generation?

WEEK 5: IMMEASURABLY MORE LEGACY

Message Notes

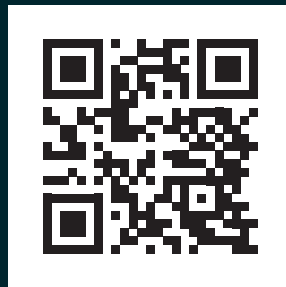

[illegible]

Discussion Questions:

1. The Corinth Kids and Teens video was amazing! What is one comment that really resonated with you from one of our kids or teens? Why do you think that one stuck out?
2. Paul says, "Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously." Where in your life do you find it easiest to be generous? Where do you tend to "hold the seeds" instead of planting them?
3. The message said, "Today's generosity shapes tomorrow's legacy." Who in your life has modeled a legacy of generosity for you? What kind of spiritual or relational legacy do you hope your generosity will leave behind?

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.
