Basic Obituary Information

These guidelines may help you plan and organize information for others to use at the time of your death. You can individualize it by adding or deleting any items that are important to you.

Name of deceased: _____
(Full name, nickname, maiden name, married name: Jane Elizabeth "Janie" [Jones] Smith)

Date of birth: _____

Place of birth: _____
(May add where person grew up or lived)

Parents' names: _____
(Include mother's maiden name)

High School graduation: _____
(School(s) and years)

College graduation: _____
(College, year(s), major)

Marriage(s): _____
(Legal name of spouse, place, date) Repeat for more than one marriage.

Significant work experiences, accomplishments, or places lived (with dates): _____
_____

Significant organizations/memberships (religious, community, civic, volunteer, etc.) ____
_____
_____

Names of immediate family members who preceded the deceased in death (Spouse, parents, siblings, children, grandchildren, etc.) _____
_____

Names of family survivors (Spouse, parents, siblings, children, grandchildren, etc.) ____
_____

Services to be held: _____

Additional if desired: Cause of death, memorial donations, wishes, etc.