Weekly Bulletin for the 11th October 2026

Twenty Eighth Sunday of Year A

Prayer Intentions

Please pray for all who are sick, in mind, body or spirit, and those in hospital, in care and the sick and housebound of our parishes. Please remember those who have died including Elizabeth Van Blerk, who died recently, as well as Susan McAllister, Kathleen Kennedy, Bill Jackson, Kenneth Gibson, Thomas O'Kane, Ellen Rennie, and Mary Muir, whose anniversaries are around this time. May they rest in peace.

Responsorial Psalm

In the LORD'S own house shall I dwell for length of days unending.

Quiz Night: Thanks to everyone who came along and supported our quiz night, I hope everyone enjoyed the night. Thanks also to everyone who helped pull the night together and prepare for it, it raised over £300 for the hall renovation fund.

Retired Priests Fund: This weekend, at the end of each mass, there will be a second collection to support the diocese in its care of our retired priests.

We are moving! A little while ago a few volunteers began running a charity chop from the hall in Dalry, this has proved a great success and raised several hundred pounds for the hall renovation fund. Due to their ongoing success the shop has now moved to St Margaret's Hall in Dalry and hopes to open 10am – 12 noon Monday to Friday, but to do so they need more volunteers. If you can spare even an hour, please pop along and offer your time.

Coffee Morning: The next Guild Coffee Morning will be on Friday 24th October from 10-12, entry £3 for adults, £1 for children. Home baking will be most welcome as will donations for raffle prizes.

The Funeral for Elizabeth Van Blerk will be celebrated in St Brigid's at 10am on Friday 23rd October. All will be welcome.

Galloway Newsletter: The latest edition of the diocesan newsletter is available at the back of each church.

Grief to Grace: A Healing Retreat for Victims of Abuse – 22nd to 27th February 2027 in Perth. Grief to Grace is a specialised 5-day programme of spiritual and psychological healing for anyone who has suffered from sexual, physical, or emotional abuse or neglect in childhood, adolescence or adulthood, including those abused by a religious / member of the clergy. If you are interested in this confidential healing retreat, please contact: Grief to Grace (Scotland) at margaret.clarke@griegtograceuk.org

Young Caritas Scotland: SCIAF is launching Young Caritas Scotland, a new movement for young adults who want to put their faith into action, meet likeminded people from the global church, and help build a better world. This movement is about making a real difference – about solidarity and community. A space to connect with young people across in Scotland and across the world and turn frustration into something hopeful. More information and details of how to join our movement can be found at www.sciaf.org.uk/youngcaritas

Latest Phase in Diocesan Structures Consultation: At the request of the Holy See, the Bishops of Scotland have been considering how our diocesan structures can best serve our shared mission in the years ahead. Their latest statement on the progress of this conversation is available at the back of each church.
