Visiting the Sick: At one time there were three, and at times even four priests in the Garnock Valley, now there is only one. As a result, many of the things we have taken for granted are no longer possible in the way they once were. In particular, regular visits to the sick and housebound have particularly suffered. There are two ways I ask your help. Firstly, if you know any who are sick in the parish please visit them, and if you are willing, take them communion. If you do visit someone and they particularly want me to visit, please ask them to contact me directly and arrange a day and a time, sadly the general invitation to "call round when you have time" doesn't work... and if I don't turn up, keep phoning!
