WHO WE ARE

On June 15th, 1954, Reginald and Ivy Cooper, along with 3 daughters and 2 sons, emigrated to Canada from England on the S.S. Georgic, arriving in Trenton, Ontario and settling in Belleville, Ontario. One of those sons was Martyn R. J. Cooper.

In October 1965, Martyn obtained his Embalmers' Certificate of Qualification from the province of Ontario after completing the prescribed studies at the Banting Institute at the University of Toronto.

From 1968 to 1974, Martyn was employed at the J.B. Marlatt Funeral Home in Hamilton, Ontario. One evening while at work greeting people who were attending a visitation, he was approached by a lady by the name of Emma Awde who suggested that he move to her hometown of Jarvis and open a funeral home there.

Inspired by this interaction, on June 10, 1974, Cooper Funeral Home Limited was opened at 1 Dennis Street in Jarvis. On Thanksgiving Weekend 1980, after over a year of planning and construction, the current funeral home at 19 Talbot Street West was opened and ready for use.

In 1996, after working in various locations to gain experience, Ian returned home, along with his wife Lisa and 2 daughters, to work alongside his father to complement the service being provided to Jarvis and area.

On January 1, 2005, Martyn and Brenda's, Ian became a partner in the business started nearly 32 years prior by his parents. Together, Ian and Lisa continue the day to day focus on superior, compassionate service to Jarvis and the surrounding area with one overarching commitment: "Serving You As We Would Be Served"

For many families the idea of discussing funeral arrangements can be very challenging. Pre-Arranging your funeral with Cooper Funeral Home helps reduce the stress and the number of important decisions your family will need to make at the time of death. Pre-Arranging with Cooper Funeral Home ensures your family will be able to focus on coming together with family and friends at a difficult time in their lives, not worrying about which services and products are needed for the funeral.
