2027 HealthSpring PDP

Top 5 Things to Know

1. All HealthSpring plans will experience changes due to contract consolidation; not all PDP members will crosswalk, and all new and renewing members will receive a new ID card
2. HealthSpring plans will move to CMS contract number S5715
3. Changes experienced by members in Extra plans will vary by state
   - Extra Plan in 10 regions will be crosswalked to the Assurance Plan
   - Extra Plans in 16 regions will be terminated; these members will receive a Service Area Reduction Notice in September rather than an Annual Notice of Change (ANOC) and will need to find a new Prescription Drug Plan for 2027
4. Members in Blue Cross PDP plans in IL, NM, OK, and TX are changing to HealthSpring branded PDP plans on January 1, 2027
   - Legacy MedicareRx Value (PDP) is changing to HealthSpring Extra Rx (PDP)
   - Legacy MedicareRx Basic (PDP) is changing to HealthSpring Assurance Rx (PDP)
5. We are a nationwide plan for 2027 (at least one plan in all 50 states plus DC and PR)

PDP Broker Call Line

A dedicated Prescription Drug Plan (PDP) line for brokers to call with their members if they have any inquiries, potential complaints, or issues regarding their plan. Brokers can contact this line with the same types of inquiries addressed through our main member service line (800-222-6700), and our advocates will follow established processes to resolve their inquiries.

Inquiry examples include:

- The member enrolled in the wrong plan
- An incorrect effective date was used on the application
- An invalid Special Election Period (SEP) was used on the application
- The member was given inaccurate information about a medication covered by the plan
- Drug costs differ at the pharmacy vs. what the enrollment agent shared
