Shop Small Saturday

WHEN: Saturday, November 25

Wickenburg's small businesses are the foundation of our community. They're the first to sponsor our local student athletics, donate to local families in need, and support the community wherever they can. Choosing to shop and spend locally directly supports these businesses. Here's some other ways you can support our local small businesses:

Leave a positive review online. Visitors coming to Wickenburg for the first time often get their first impression of a business from comments or reviews on Google or Yelp. Take time to write a positive review of your favorite local business!

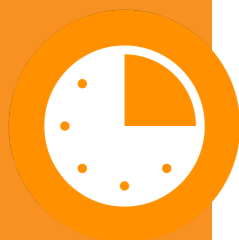

Give a shout-out on social media. Make a post on your preferred social media platform about your favorite local business.

Engage with their social media content! When a business asks you to "like, comment, share", it's for more than just numbers. Higher engagement on social media posts increases the visibility and likelihood of the content reaching a bigger audience.

We challenge you to do one (or all!) of the things listed above for your favorite local businesses this season.

Save the date: December Quarterly Luncheon

Friday, December 15, noon
