Consumer Right of Selection

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Professional Services

Basic Services of Funeral Director and Staff

$2,495

This fee includes personnel available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year; arrangement conference and consultation; obtaining necessary authorizations and signatures; preparing and filing the death certificate and Social Security notification; coordination necessary to carry out the funeral or disposition arrangements selected with Serenity; and a proportionate share of basic overhead, facility maintenance, administrative expenses, and governmental compliance.

This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials, and forwarding or receiving remains.)

Preparation and Care of the Deceased

Embalming

$995

Embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial.

Florida law note: Human remains held more than 24 hours after death or pending final disposition must be refrigerated at 40°F or below, embalmed, or otherwise preserved by an approved method.

Clergy, Officiant or Celebrant

A funeral or memorial ceremony may be religious or nonreligious. A family member, friend, clergy member, officiant, or celebrant may conduct the service.

Families may contact their own place of worship or officiant. At the family's request, Serenity can provide contact information for potential clergy or officiants.

Any honorarium, stipend, donation, church fee, or third-party officiant charge is the responsibility of the purchaser and will be treated as a cash advance item when Serenity pays it on the family's behalf.
