A Parent's Prayer

Most Loving Father, the example of parenthood.

Teach me what to give and what to withhold.

Show me when to reprove and when to praise.

Make me gentle and considerate, yet firm and watchful.

Keep me from weak indulgence, or from great severity.

Give me the courage to be disliked sometimes by my children,

When I must do necessary things which are displeasing in their eyes.

Give me the imagination to enter into their world,

In order to understand and guide them.

Give me all the virtues/need to lead them by the word and example

On the path of righteousness.

Appropriate Dress Attire

Dear Parents and Godparents,

Do you know that when you enter a church something profound happens?

We leave behind a secular place and step into a sacred space. In this holy environment, we are in the presence of God, which always calls for reverence and respect from all of us. No matter how simple or modest the church may be, it is a unique space for worship.

With this in mind, please observe the following guidelines:

Women: Spaghetti straps or strapless garments are not permitted unless you have a shawl or covering for your shoulders

Men: Please wear your Sunday best, including slacks and a nice shirt. If it is winter, a light sports jacket is appropriate.

Men & Women: Shorts, T-shirts, or flip-flops are not suitable for this celebration. Additionally, clothing with inappropriate messages or images is not allowed.

Please be aware of this dress code is not adhered to on the day of the Baptism, the Priest or Deacon may ask to reschedule the ceremony until the dress code is followed.
