Pfizer's former Vice President, Michael Yeadon, says there was no pandemic, the PCR tests were FAKE and they lied about the virus so Anthony Fauci could intentionally inject 5.5 Billion people with a poisonous cocktail

Iran is in TOTAL SHOCK as CENTCOM completely incinerates 3 of their oil vessels after blowing up their radar systems! 🔥

The mullahs are powerless while their economic lifeline burns.

Trump and our military are destroying the IRGC! Total dominance! CENTCOM Commander Admiral Brad Cooper sends WARNING to the Iranian Regime:

Admiral Cooper: “Let the message to the IRGC be CLEAR: If you shoot at two of our ships, we will impose an even higher economic cost —taking out three of yours.”

Trump just warned Iran. If activity shows at Pickaxe Mountain, the U.S. may hit that nuclear site “very soon” Not a bluff. Not a cable-news panel. A President putting the regime on notice. Iran’s been playing games with nukes for decades. The clock just got shorter. There are three meaningful developments today, with the strongest theme being the danger of several Middle Eastern fronts merging into one larger confrontation.

1. Israel is now conducting a surprise nationwide exercise for a massive multi-front attack. The Israel Defense Forces launched an exercise today testing readiness for simultaneous threats as the anniversary of October 7 approaches. More significantly, Israeli reporting says intelligence assessments indicate Iran may be seeking greater coordination among Hezbollah, Hamas, the Houthis and other aligned forces for a future simultaneous assault on Israel. That latter claim remains an Israeli intelligence assessment, not a confirmed attack plan.

For Prophetic Table Talk, this makes “Israel surrounded on multiple fronts” a serious discussion theme. Zechariah 12 and Psalm 83 may naturally enter that conversation, but I would distinguish their biblical texts from claims that today's particular military configuration fulfills them.

2. The Israel–Lebanon ceasefire is deteriorating. Israel struck southern Lebanon today after what it described as Hezbollah drone attacks. Lebanon's health ministry reports four people killed and six injured. Lebanese President Joseph Aoun called the strikes a dangerous escalation. This is occurring despite the U.S.-brokered ceasefire established in June.

This matters because the northern front is heating up at the same moment the U.S.–Iran confrontation is escalating around Hormuz. A useful biblical discussion is Jesus' warning about “wars and rumors of wars” in Matthew 24:6, together with His instruction not to become alarmed.

3. Iran says it has now struck a U.S. vessel in the Strait of Hormuz. Tehran says it hit an unmanned American military vessel today following U.S. attacks on three Iranian oil tankers. The U.S. says those tanker strikes were retaliation for Iranian ballistic-missile attacks against American warships. Iran's claim about hitting the U.S. vessel has not been independently verified.

The Strait of Hormuz therefore remains one of the world's most consequential economic and military gates. What began as disruption of commerce is increasingly involving direct U.S.–Iran military exchanges.

The pattern to watch

I would title today's Prophetic Table Talk segment:

“A MULTI-FRONT WAR? Israel Prepares as Iran's Network Begins to Move.”

The Trump administration is reportedly drafting a plan pushed by JD Vance to give federal child care funds to married couples with a STAY-AT-HOME SPOUSE while the other parent works — NYT

The program could be $9K per year for these families. The goal: make it easier for married Americans to let one parent take care of the children, rather than both work and pay others to take care of the children

This could create an incentive for parents to "stay at home with their children"

Apparently, this is similar to a MARCO RUBIO proposal when he was Senator 🗣️

It sounds like this would be under current federal programs, not new laws passed by Congress

Massachusetts Jury Deadlocks in Lindsay Clancy Murder Trial

A Plymouth County jury could not reach a verdict in the case of Lindsay Clancy, the former labor and delivery nurse charged with killing her three children in Duxbury in January 2023. Cora was 5, Dawson was 3, and Callan was 8 months old. Clancy then tried to take her own life and was left paralyzed. She did not deny the killings. Her lawyers said postpartum psychosis and psychiatric medication meant she was not criminally responsible.

The jury of nine women and three men sat through a six week trial and then deliberated seven days. They told the judge they were stuck three times. Notes pointed to an 11-1 split, with one male juror holding out.

The defense asked to remove that juror. Massachusetts' highest court said no. Judge William Sullivan declared a mistrial on September 4. Clancy remains at Tewksbury Hospital while prosecutors decide whether to try the case again, take a plea, or drop the charges. They will likely charge again.

Illinois Mother Charged After 2 Year Old Son Dies

Corie A. Walsh of Frankfort, Illinois, has been charged with three counts of first degree murder in the death of her 2 year old son, Barrett. Police found the boy unresponsive at the home on September 1. Walsh had injuries that were not life threatening. Three other children in the house were unharmed. The toddler later died at a hospital. Preliminary findings pointed to asphyxia.

The case is already being compared to Lindsay Clancy's. Court papers say Walsh told police she acted because she believed her son was the devil and the anti Christ.

Witnesses said she had become heavily focused on the Clancy trial and was texting friends about it hours before this happened. Prosecutors want her held, saying she is a threat to the rest of her family.

White House Goes Back to the Supreme Court on Mail Ballots

The Trump administration filed a second emergency request with the Supreme Court asking it to block Judge Indira Talwani's 14 day order that stopped the Postal Service's new mail ballot rule.

The rule requires states to send lists of eligible mail voters and use envelopes with unique barcodes. USPS said it would not accept outbound ballot mail that does not meet the standard. North Carolina was set to start mailing ballots the next day. Solicitor General D. John Sauer told the justices the block would cause real harm if ballots go out before the Postal Service can check lists and envelopes. The First Circuit has not ruled yet on a related appeal. If you're going to run a huge mail ballot system, you should be able to track the envelope and know it went to someone who is actually supposed to get one.

The justices already knocked down an earlier challenge for being too early. Now the other side is using a short term order to run out the clock.

The Volcano — Prophetic Table Talk

THE VOLCANO: A WAKE-UP CALL?

Reports are emerging of a significant eruptive episode at Anak Krakatau, Indonesia, with powerful lava fountains, volcanic lightning, ash emissions, and intense volcanic tremor being observed.

The volcano sits in the Sunda Strait between Java and Sumatra and carries a sobering history. In 1883, the Krakatoa eruption became one of the most powerful volcanic events in recorded history. In 2018, an eruption and subsequent collapse of Anak Krakatau generated a deadly tsunami.

Scientists are watching the current activity closely because volcanic eruptions can intensify rapidly. At present, there is no basis for declaring that this event will become another 1883. Nor should every dramatic natural event automatically be interpreted as a prophetic fulfillment.

But for those who view current events through a biblical lens, moments like this can serve as a reminder of Scripture's warnings about earthquakes, volcanic upheaval, and signs in the heavens and on the earth.

Jesus said that there would be "earthquakes in various places" and described such events as part of the beginning of birth pains. The message is not to panic, but to remain spiritually awake.

The question for the table is not simply, "Is this prophecy?"

The deeper question is: "Are we paying attention, and are we ready?"

Pray for the people of Indonesia, especially those living near the volcano and surrounding coastline. And as we watch the earth respond with forces far beyond human control, let it remind us to stay alert, grounded in truth, and prepared for the day when Christ returns. On Sept. 5, at the direction of #SOUTHCOM, Joint Task Force Western Hemisphere (JTF-WHEM) forces successfully interdicted a multi-vessel floating refueling station in support of illicit at-sea drug trafficking operations in the Eastern Pacific.

Intelligence confirmed the vessels were operating in support of the Los Choneros violent narco-terrorist organization. Individuals removed from the main vessel have been transferred to Ecuadorian authorities. Once the main vessel was cleared and the crew disembarked, U.S. forces sank it and the attached support vessels. JTF-WHEM continues to conduct precise and professional operations to dismantle the logistical networks fueling narco-trafficking in the Western Hemisphere.

Goldman Sachs flees New York and leaves socialist mayor Mamdani in a panic.

The mayor of New York faces a harsh blow after it was confirmed that Goldman Sachs, one of Wall Street's historic giants, is forcing hundreds of its managers and employees to choose between relocating to Dallas, Texas, or Salt Lake City, or leaving the company altogether, due to the unsustainable operating costs triggered by the tax hikes and regulations pushed by his socialist administration. The massive exodus of the iconic firm to

ICE: 2,197 Arrests in New York Under Operation Rotten Apple

Homeland Security Secretary Markwayne Mullin said ICE arrested 2,197 illegal aliens in New York between July 27 and August 29. DHS named several people with serious records, including a Ukrainian convicted in a kidnapping and murder case, a Colombian with child sex charges, an Indian man with a rape conviction in Germany, a Venezuelan with a rape conviction, and a Mexican man arrested for first degree rape.

Mullin said the sweep included gang members, rapists, murderers, and child predators, and that it happened with no help from Mayor Zohran Mamdani or Governor Kathy Hochul. DHS claims New York policies led to 13,621 criminal illegal aliens being released from jails back onto the streets. Hochul rejected the “worst of the worst” line and said the administration is now going after innocent people to hit quotas. DHS highlighted the named cases. It did not say all 2,197 were violent convicts

I organized the material into a Prophetic Table Talk format with strong direct quotes, concise explanations, and two discussion questions that can open conversation on the broadcast.

PROPHETIC TABLE TALK

From Wilderness to Inheritance: The Moses, Joshua & Caleb Transition

1. A PLUMBLINE IS BEING DROPPED

“This is a season of great transition, of great change for the people of God. There is a plumbline being drastically dropped to divide the last season that we are exiting out of into this season that we are entering.”

Explanation

The central prophetic message is that this is not simply another difficult season—it is a dividing season.

A plumbline establishes what is straight and what is out of alignment. Prophetically, the picture is that God is distinguishing between what belonged to the previous season and what can move into the next one.

The warning is important:

What worked in the wilderness may not work in the Promised Land.

The spiritual posture required to survive yesterday may not be the posture required to possess tomorrow.

2. GOD BRINGS HIS PEOPLE OUT—BUT HE ALSO BRINGS THEM IN

“Notice the two stages. They are bringing them out and bringing them into.”

Exodus 3:7–8 presents both movements:

God said He would bring Israel out of Egypt and bring them into a good and spacious land flowing with milk and honey.

Explanation

Deliverance is only half of the process.

There is:

Coming OUT

- out of bondage
- out of oppression
- out of old systems
- out of captivity
- out of the former season

But there is also:

Coming IN

- into covenant
- into responsibility
- into inheritance

- into stewardship
- into territory
- into promise

We can become so focused on what God is delivering us from that we fail to prepare ourselves for what He is bringing us into.

3. MOSES AND JOSHUA REPRESENT DIFFERENT ASSIGNMENTS

“Moses is for the wilderness, Caleb and Joshua are for the inheritance.”

Explanation

Moses and Joshua were not competing with each other. They represented successive assignments in the purposes of God.

Moses was equipped to:

- confront Pharaoh,
- lead Israel out of Egypt,
- establish covenant,
- receive the law,
- lead through the wilderness.

Joshua was equipped to:

- cross the Jordan,
- confront Jericho,
- fight for territory,
- dispossess enemies,
- divide the inheritance,
- establish Israel in the land.

The prophetic principle is powerful:

A person can be perfectly anointed for one season and not be God's instrument for the next assignment.

Sometimes transition requires recognizing that the assignment itself has changed.

4. THE WILDERNESS WAS NOT WASTED

“Egypt represents bondage. The wilderness represents formation and refining. Canaan represents inheritance.”

Explanation

The wilderness was difficult, but it had purpose.

Joshua and Caleb were not suddenly prepared when they arrived at the Jordan.

They were prepared in the wilderness.

The wilderness taught Israel:

- trust instead of fear,
- obedience instead of rebellion,
- dependence instead of self-sufficiency,
- faith instead of sight,
- covenant identity instead of slave mentality.

Israel physically left Egypt quickly.

But the mentality Egypt produced inside them required a much longer process.

This gives us an important prophetic distinction:

You can be delivered from a place before that place has been delivered out of you.

5. DELIVERANCE AND POSSESSION REQUIRE DIFFERENT POSTURES

“There is a profound distinction between being delivered from something and being prepared to possess something.”

Explanation

Deliverance says:

“I am no longer a slave.”

Inheritance says:

“Now I must become a steward.”

In Egypt, Israel was somebody else's possession.

In Canaan, Israel was being trained to possess and steward what God had given them.

That means freedom brings responsibility.

God doesn't simply break chains. He develops people who can faithfully carry what comes after the chains are broken.

6. THE TEN SPIES SAW GIANTS—JOSHUA AND CALEB SAW GOD

“The ten spies interpreted God through the circumstances. Joshua and Caleb interpreted the circumstances through God.”

Explanation

All twelve spies saw exactly the same territory.

They saw:

- the same giants,
- the same fortified cities,
- the same obstacles,
- the same land.

But they produced two completely different conclusions.

Ten essentially said:

“The people are stronger than we are.”

Caleb said:

“Let us go up at once and occupy it, for we are well able to overcome it.”

The difference was not what they saw.

The difference was how they interpreted what they saw.

Fear interpreted God through the giant.

Faith interpreted the giant through God.

7. FAITH DOES NOT DENY THE GIANT

“Faith isn't pretending the giant isn't there, the obstacle isn't there, the mountain isn't there, or the problem isn't there.”

Explanation

Biblical faith is not denial.

Joshua and Caleb never said there were no giants.

They never said the cities weren't fortified.

They never denied the battle ahead.

Instead, they refused to give those obstacles final authority.

That produces one of the strongest statements in this message:

“Joshua and Caleb didn't deny reality and what they faced in the land. They denied reality's authority over God's Word.”

Faith says:

The obstacle is real, but the obstacle is not sovereign.

The problem exists, but the problem does not make the final decision.

God does.

8. CALEB HAD “A DIFFERENT SPIRIT”

Numbers 14:24 says:

“But My servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit and has followed Me fully, I will bring into the land...”

Explanation

Caleb's difference was not simply optimism.

He possessed a different internal posture.

The ten spies looked at themselves beside the giants and said:

“We are like grasshoppers.”

Caleb looked at the giants in relationship to Almighty God.

That changes everything.

The prophetic question therefore becomes:

What is determining our perspective—the size of the enemy or the greatness of God?

9. THE WILDERNESS REVEALS HEART POSTURE

“The wilderness reveals heart posture.”

Explanation

Pressure exposes what already exists beneath the surface.

The wilderness revealed:

- unbelief,
- rebellion,
- bitterness,
- fear,
- hardened hearts.

But that same wilderness developed Joshua and Caleb.

The wilderness that broke one generation made another generation ready to possess the promise.

That means adversity itself does not determine our future.

Our response to God in adversity matters tremendously.

The wilderness can either produce bitterness or produce maturity.

10. MIRACLES ALONE DO NOT CREATE FAITHFUL HEARTS

“Miracles alone don't create obedient hearts.”

Explanation

Israel witnessed extraordinary supernatural events:

- Egypt judged,
- the Red Sea divided,
- manna falling from heaven,
- water coming from the rock,
- God's cloud by day,
- God's fire by night.

Yet many still hardened their hearts.

The issue wasn't a lack of supernatural evidence.

The deeper issue was whether they would trust God enough to obey Him.

We can witness God's power and still resist God's process.

The Promised Land required more than seeing miracles.

It required trust, surrender, obedience, consecration and covenant faithfulness.

11. THERE ARE THINGS THAT CANNOT GO INTO THE NEXT SEASON

“There's a sifting happening. There are things that can't go with you. There are things that can't enter with you.”

Explanation

This is where the plumbline becomes personal.

Moving into new territory may require leaving behind:

- old fears,
- old offenses,
- old relationships,
- old methods,
- old identities,
- unbelief,
- bitterness,
- rebellion,
- unhealthy loyalties,
- wilderness thinking.

Sometimes separation feels painful because something familiar is being removed.

But removal is not always rejection.

Sometimes removal is preparation for inheritance.

12. THE PROPHETIC PICTURE FOR THE NATION

“God has a plan for this nation. Yes, we see that there are boasting giants rising in the land.”

Explanation

The message applies the Joshua-and-Caleb picture not only personally and spiritually but nationally.

The argument is that America is facing circumstances that can appear overwhelming, but believers must decide whether they will respond like the ten spies or like Joshua and Caleb.

The prophetic challenge becomes:

Are we going to interpret God’s purposes through the giants—or interpret the giants through the authority and purposes of God?

The message also connects this transition with leadership, suggesting that different seasons may require different kinds of leaders—people carrying a Joshua-and-Caleb type of courage, faith and capacity for conflict.

13. THE PROPHETIC WARNING: DO NOT SETTLE IN THE WILDERNESS

“Some of you want to stay in your old season and God is moving out of it.”

Explanation

The wilderness can eventually become familiar.

Even hardship can become comfortable when it is all we have known.

But Joshua and Caleb refused to settle.

There comes a moment when God says:

You have learned what you needed to learn here. Now move.

The temptation at the threshold is to retreat into what is familiar because possessing something new requires another level of faith.

14. WE ARE MOVING FROM SURVIVING TO POSSESSING

“They knew how to survive in the wilderness. Now they had to transition, to fight and prosper in the promise.”

Explanation

This may be one of the most important statements for this prophetic season.

There is a significant difference between:

survival mentality

and inheritance mentality.

Survival asks:

“How do I make it through today?”

Inheritance asks:

“How do I faithfully steward what God has placed in my hands?”

Survival responds to circumstances.

Possession moves under divine assignment.

15. THE FINAL CALL: TRUST GOD AT THE THRESHOLD

“Faith is not understanding every piece. Faith is saying, ‘I don't have to understand but I trust that God does.’”

Explanation

Israel arrived at a place where they could no longer remain where they had been.

They either had to trust God and enter—or retreat.

Threshold seasons demand decisions.

We may not understand every battle ahead.

We may not know exactly how every promise will manifest.

But faith does not require complete understanding before obedience.

Faith says:

God knows what I cannot see.

God has already gone ahead of me.

God is greater than the giants occupying the territory.

Therefore I will follow Him into the next season.

PROPHETIC TABLE TALK DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Question 1

Do you believe we are presently experiencing a “Moses-to-Joshua” transition—personally, in the Church, or nationally? What evidence do you see that an old wilderness season may be ending and a season of possessing territory is beginning?

Question 2

The ten spies and Joshua and Caleb saw the exact same giants but interpreted them completely differently. What are the “giants” confronting the Church and America right now, and how do we keep from allowing the size of those obstacles to become greater in our thinking than the authority and promises of God?

This version should work especially well for Prophetic Table Talk because each section gives you a strong quote you can read aloud and then a discussion point your panel can expand on.
