Autumn Play News!!

Get ready for our next comedic play production 'TIL BETH DO US PART by Jones Hope Wooten, directed by Doug Avram.

Til Beth Do Us Part is a hilarious comedy about marriage, careers, and someone coming in between. The play tells the story of Suzannah and Gibby Hayden, an empty-nest married couple. While Gibby is seemingly content with his gig as a local TV weatherman, his wife is wanting to finally develop her career. Struggling with her increased workload and her husband Gibby's inability to help with basic household chores, Suzannah employs a personal assistant at the recommendation of her good friend. Beth's southern charm and ability to organize everything is almost too good to be true—and that's when the drama begins to unfold.

The play will run from October 17th to November 2nd:

- Matinee Performances (2pm)
 - October 19, 25, 26
 - November 01, 02
- Evening Performances (7:30pm)
 - October 17, 18
