The Miracle of the Loaves and Fishes

Taylor Baar
Communications &
Stewardship Director

One of my favorite places I visited on pilgrimage to the Holy Land was Tabgha, home to the Church of the Multiplication of the Loaves and Fishes. Situated near the northwestern shore of the Sea of Galilee, this church is traditionally honored as the place where Jesus miraculously fed the five thousand. Near the altar is a beautiful fifth-century mosaic depicting the loaves and fishes. It is a simple and powerful reminder of Christ's abundant generosity. As I read the Gospel for this weekend, I couldn't help but think of this sacred place. In the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes, we are reminded that we are invited to participate in God's saving work. When Jesus sees the hungry crowd, he does not simply solve the problem himself. Instead, Jesus turns to the disciples and says, "Give them some food yourselves." In doing so, Jesus reveals that God delights in working through ordinary people. He takes what they offer, however small it may seem, and transforms it into what is needed.

This Gospel reminds us that God accomplishes extraordinary things through humble offerings. Five loaves and two fish hardly seem like enough to feed thousands, but once they were placed into Jesus' hands, he gave thanks, blessed them, broke them, and there was more than enough for everyone. The same is true in our lives. When we share our time, talents, and treasure with God, God multiplies them in ways we could never imagine. Sometimes we can be tempted to think that miracles belong only in the pages of Scripture. We tell ourselves that miracles happened long ago but no longer happen today. The church at Tabgha stands as a reminder that these events happened in real places and among real people. More importantly, the same God who multiplied the loaves and fishes continues to work through people today. Every act of charity, every word of encouragement, every sacrifice offered in love becomes another opportunity for Christ to multiply what we place in his hands. While we may not see thousands fed with five loaves and two fish, we do see hearts and lives changed, bridges built, and faith deepened. God still works miracles and invites each of us to be participants in God's saving work by offering what we have with trusting and generous hearts.

Our Sympathies

Mary Witzel

was born to eternal life on July 22, 2026.

Funeral will be Aug. 28 at St. Anthony on the Lake.

Bill McDevitt

was born to eternal life on July 21, 2026.

Bill and his wife are members of both St. Anthony and St. Charles parishes. His Funeral Mass will be August 4 at St. Charles, Hartland.

Please keep their families and friends in your prayers. May they rest in peace.

Is Planning Your Funeral in Advance Right for You?

Preplanning for a funeral Mass and visitation is an important decision not to be taken lightly. Making your preferences known to your loved ones ensures your wishes are carried out. It also removes any uncertainties for family members, bringing them comfort during a time of grief.

The pastoral team at St. Anthony on the Lake is here to walk with you and guide you in planning your funeral. We encourage you to take as much time as you need. Nothing is written in stone and you can always change your mind as the years pass.

The most important decision is to get started. St. Anthony Director of Music and Liturgy, Vince LaTona, can help you begin. To set up an appointment, email him at latonav@stanthony.cc or call him at (262) 691-1173, ext. 1109.

Votive Candles

Why do Catholics light votive candles?

MARRIAGE MOMENT

Having a disagreement? Try this:
Both spouses rate how strongly they feel about the issue on a scale of 1-10 with 10 being "I would be devastated to give in on this one." Sometimes the partner with the lesser investment will be willing to give in - this time. If you're both about 5, seek a middle ground. If you're both around 10, seek a creative new solution or put off the decision and agree to disagree for now. Don't play games though. If one partner ALWAYS feels like a 10, he or she may need to deal with control issues.

A Summer Prayer

God, Creator of all, thank you for summer!
Thank you for the warmth of the sun
and the increased daylight.

Thank you for the beauty I see all around me and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy creation.

Thank you for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family, and for the more casual pace of the summer season.

As we head into summer, draw me closer to you.
Teach me how I can pray no matter where I am or what I am doing. Warm my soul with the awareness of your presence and light my path with your Word.

As I enjoy your creation, create in me
a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for you.

Amen
