From Your Pastor's Desk: Back in the Saddle

Fr. Tony Zimmer
Pastor

As many of you know, on Wednesday, July 1st I experienced my second TIA while meeting with a funeral family. Suddenly I couldn't write. My speech became slurred. I had a hard time swallowing. My balance was off. My blood pressure was 200/120. I wrapped up the planning session, drove home, and Fr. Ken called 911. I was transported to Waukesha Memorial ER. After the usual 6-hour visit, I was released with instructions for multiple follow-ups and an increase and change in my medications. After the 4th of July weekend, I returned to have Mass, and attend/preside at two funerals, including Fr. Tom Venne's. I felt like I was drunk... my balance was off, speech was still slurred and I was very fatigued. After consulting with my doctors, our Vicar for Clergy, Fr. Jim Volkert, and our parish staff/leadership, it was decided I should take a 5-week medical leave to regroup, rest, attend to my many appointments and tests that ensued. And so, I did. A brain MRI confirmed that I did indeed have my second mini-stroke. I was told that these were an early warning for more strokes both minor and major. The cause... my lifestyle. Poor work/life balance, lousy diet, no exercise, and stress. This was a wake-up call for me. Fear struck my heart. I do not want to enter into my retirement years limited, in a wheelchair, and dependent.

Consequently, I have begun a new chapter of self-care in my life...

- No more fast food and eating in my car on my way to something else
- A weight loss regime that includes healthier eating
- More exercise. I am riding my bike, taking longer dog walks, and I have hired a personal trainer... our own parishioner, Brandon Herrera
- I will be adding a second day off in my work week on Fridays
- I am limiting my talks and speaking engagements outside of the parish

- I am seeking therapy on some family dynamics
- And I will be delegating more of my workload

All of this demands time. A lot of time. And I will be taking that time to do so. I ask that you understand the necessity of this as I enter into the final months before my retirement.

I want to also thank the many people who made this short medical leave possible for me.

All the help-out clergy: Frs. Ken Knippel, Ted Lawson, John Schreiter, Mike Barrett, the Redemptorists, and others. I could not have done this without your help!

Our PLT staff: Kathie Amidei, Art Scheuber, Vince LaTona, Renee Gallagher, Terry Robinson, and Taylor Baar. They stepped up to the plate big time!

Our front office staff, especially Kris Ponzi for finding all our help-outs, and adapting to all of the schedule adjustments

Our Trustees, John Hooyman and Sheri Schmidt and our council chairs, Scott Krebs and Cheryl Oliva for their encouragement and support

All of you as parishioners and friends. Your cards, Mass intentions, meals, prayers, and support meant the world to me!

I am returning to you rested, feeling good about the changes I am making, and ready to serve you for my remaining time with you. Again, thank you for your patience, understanding, and prayerful support!

Blessings,

Fr. Tony

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES!

AV Live Streaming

We are looking for additional volunteers to help stream the 9:00 am Mass each Sunday. Training and support are provided for this important ministry to our homebound parishioners. If you would like to volunteer or have questions, please contact the Music and Liturgy Office at latonav@stanthony.cc or call (262) 691-1173 ex. 1109.

New Audio System Arriving Soon!

As part of the Love One Another Campaign, a new sound system will be installed in the church sometime between late October and early November. The system will include new microphones for the priests and deacons, new mics at the ambo and cantor stand, new mics over the choir, new speakers over the congregation, updates to the speakers in the Gathering Space, new projectors, and enhancements to cameras for streaming. We are now beginning to look for volunteers to operate this new equipment with a mixing board that will be located at the AV desk in the rear of the church. We will be needing one person per Mass to operate the new system, a total of four per weekend. Training will begin soon. If you would like to volunteer for this new ministry or have questions, please contact the Music and Liturgy Office at latonav@stanthony.cc or call (262) 691-1173 ex. 1109.
