WOMEN'S MINISTRY

Dr. Kathie Amidei
Pastoral Associate

An Invitation to All Women to Renew Your Spirit: YOU ARE GOD'S BELOVED

*When was the last time you took a morning just to be with God?
Not to accomplish anything, fix anything, or become a better version of yourself, but simply to rest in the truth that you are already deeply loved.*

Over the years we have offered opportunities for women to gather and reflect on their experience of God. We found friendships, strength, and wisdom shared, created a warm community so beneficial to our wellbeing. We would like to revive that mission and begin with a wonderful opportunity that will lift the spirit of women of all ages and stages of life.

Saturday, October 24 we have invited Kristin Bird of Burning Hearts Ministry to lead us in a Morning of Reflection. We would love to have the women of our parish community experience Kristin's ministry. She is a down-to-earth, gifted speaker with a compelling message for each of us. There is a $10 per person registration fee to offset expenses. To register, scan the QR code on this page, call the Faith Formation office at (262) 691-9170, or email Maureen Michaels: michaelsm@stanthony.cc.

You Are God's Beloved

We spend so much of our lives caring for others, meeting expectations, and trying to be who we think we're supposed to be. But how often do we stop to consider who we are in God's eyes? We offer this, a morning of reflection, as we step away from the busyness of everyday life, rediscover what it means to be God's beloved daughters, and make space to encounter the love He has for each of us, right where we are.

Please Join us October 24

You deserve to give yourself this time!

WOMEN'S Morning of Reflection

Saturday, October 24

8:30 to 11:30 am | St. Anthony Hall

followed by Adoration from 11:30 am to Noon

Presented by Kristin Bird of Burning Hearts Disciples
Light refreshments served.

Register with QR Code or visit:

4 • PRAYER & WORSHIP

Taizé Services Begin This Week

Thursday, October 19 at 7 pm in the Church

Taizé prayer is a simple and contemplative form of Christian prayer that invites people to become quiet and attentive to God's presence. Originating in the ecumenical Taizé Community in France, the prayer service typically includes short, repetitive chants, Scripture readings, periods of silence, candlelight, and brief spoken prayers. Repeated music allows the words to move from the mind into the heart, creating a peaceful atmosphere for reflection and worship.

Taizé prayer is especially suited to parish gatherings, Advent and Lenten services, retreats, and ecumenical celebrations. Rather than emphasizing many words or lengthy reflections, it creates space for silence, listening, and communion with God and with one another. Participants are encouraged to set aside the busyness of daily life and simply rest in God's presence, allowing the music, Scripture, and silence to deepen their faith and open their hearts to peace.

Keeping with this year's theme
"Models of Holiness, Witnesses of Peace"
each service will focus on one of the charisms of
St. Francis of Assisi.

FALL FUN WITH OUR PRESCHOOL FRIENDS

Our preschool students have been busy learning and exploring this fall! We learned about fire prevention and the important work firefighters do to keep our community safe. We talked about when it is appropriate to call 911. The children enjoyed a special visit from firefighters, giving them the opportunity to learn more about fire safety and see real-life community helpers in action.

Laura Kosmoski
3K Teacher

We also welcomed the fall season by learning all about pumpkins! The children explored pumpkins, learned how they grow, and enjoyed a special field trip to a pumpkin farm. It was a wonderful opportunity to experience God's beautiful creation, enjoy the changing seasons, and learn through hands-on discovery.
