THE GREAT PROCESSION

Over the years I have seen my share of beautiful Cathedrals. But nothing compares to the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels in Los Angeles, that I visited about 12 years ago. One of the most striking features of that cathedral is the series of magnificent tapestries that line the walls. They depict saints from every age, every culture, every state in life. What makes these tapestries so beautiful is that the saints are not standing still. They are moving. They appear to be in procession, journeying together toward the altar of God. When you enter that cathedral, it feels as if you are surrounded by a vast multitude of holy people who are all walking in the same direction, all moving toward the same destination, all drawn toward the presence of God. And that image reminds me of something we do every Sunday… the offertory procession.

At first glance, it may seem like a small practical action. A few parishioners bring bread and wine to the altar. But it is much more than that. The offertory procession is a symbol of the whole Christian life. All of us are in a procession. All of us are moving toward the altar of God. All of us are journeying toward the heavenly banquet. Every saint whose image is woven into those tapestries has made the journey before us. Now they encourage us to keep moving forward with faith. And so, the question is this: What are we carrying/offering in our hands as we walk toward God?

This weekend, as we renew our annual stewardship commitment, that question becomes especially important. Stewardship is not simply about money. It is the recognition that everything we have comes from God. Our time. Our talents. Our treasures. Our families. Our opportunities. Even our next breath. Everything is gift. And during the offertory, we symbolically place those gifts on the altar. The bread and wine represent our entire lives. Our work. Our sacrifices. Our hopes. Our generosity. Our stewardship. When the gifts are brought forward, what we are really saying is: "Lord, everything I have comes from You. I offer it back to You." The saints understood this well. They were stewards.

St. Francis offered his wealth. St. Mother Teresa offered her service. St. Joseph offered his labor. St. Thérèse offered her small daily acts of love. Each brought something unique to the procession. Each offered what God had entrusted to them. And now it is our turn. Not someday. Not when life becomes easier. Today. This year. In this parish.

As we renew our pledge of stewardship, we are asking ourselves: How will I walk in this procession during the coming year? How will I offer my life to God? Will I give Him more of my time? Will I share my talents? Will I support the mission of the parish? Will I help build the Kingdom of God here among us?

Fr. Tony Zimmer
Pastor

As I reflect back on my 17 years as your Shepherd, there have been many of you who have inspired me with your witness of stewardship, and I thank you for that. Your dedicated service reminds me that stewardship is not an abstract idea. It has a face. It has a name.
It looks like ordinary Christians living extraordinary generosity. The Communion of Saints is not only something we admire from the past. It is something we participate in right now. The great procession continues. The saints in heaven walked before us. The faithful of our parish walk beside us. And one day, God willing, others will point to us and say: “That person taught me how to be generous." "That person taught me how to serve." "That person showed me Christ."

During this Commitment Weekend, I invite you to prayerfully consider how God is calling you to share your prayer, time, talent, and treasure. When you are ready, please visit our Renewal Page and complete the Time and Talent Interest Form so a member of our ministry team can help you get involved. On the Renewal page, you will also find a link to submit your pledge and set up a recurring gift, if needed. Thank you to everyone who generously shares their gifts with our parish. Every gift, no matter the size, makes a difference and is deeply appreciated!

As we prepare to renew our stewardship commitments, imagine yourself standing among those tapestries of saints. Imagine yourself in that great heavenly procession. Imagine all the generations who have gone before us in faith. They are moving toward the altar of God. They are carrying the gifts of their lives. And they invite us to do the same. When our turn comes to stand before the Lord, He will not ask whether we possessed much. He will ask what we did with what He entrusted to us. Were we faithful stewards? Did we love? Did we serve? Did we share? Did we bring our gifts to the altar?

This weekend we renew our pledge because we are part of something much bigger than ourselves. We are part of the Church. Part of this parish family. Part of the Communion of Saints. Part of the great procession moving toward the heavenly altar. May we walk with gratitude. May we walk with generosity. May we walk with faith. And may one day, together with all the saints, we reach the altar of God where the procession will finally become an eternal feast.

All Are Invited to Taizé Service

Wednesday, November 18 at 7 pm in the Church

Keeping with this year's theme "Models of Holiness, Witnesses of Peace" each service will focus on one of the charisms of St. Francis of Assis.

Taizé prayer is a simple and contemplative form of Christian prayer that invites people to become quiet and attentive to God's presence. Originating in the ecumenical Taizé Community in France, the prayer service typically includes short, repetitive chants, Scripture readings, periods of silence, candlelight, and brief spoken prayers. Repeated music allows the words to move from the mind into the heart, creating a peaceful atmosphere for reflection and worship.

Taizé prayer is especially suited to parish gatherings, Advent and Lenten services, retreats, and ecumenical celebrations. Rather than emphasizing many words or lengthy reflections, it creates space for silence, listening, and communion with God and with one another. Participants are encouraged to set aside the busyness of daily life and simply rest in God's presence, allowing the music, Scripture, and silence to deepen their faith and open their hearts to peace.

Worship Space Update

As part of our Love One Another Campaign, we are excited to announce upgrades to the sound system in our worship space! These improvements will help create a clearer, more engaging experience for everyone who joins us for Mass, both in person and online.

Work on these upgrades began last week and is expected to be completed in the coming week. The upgrades include transitioning from an analog to a digital sound system, installing new speakers for improved sound quality, adding an additional camera to enhance our livestream, and upgrading our microphones. We will also be adding a hearing assistance system that allows individuals with compatible hearing aids to connect directly to the sound system for a more personalized listening experience.

We look forward to hearing the difference these improvements will make and hope you enjoy a clearer, crisper sound as we continue to enhance our worship experience!

Sophomore Retreat took place this past weekend at Camp Whitcomb Mason, where 43 teens explored Catholic Social Teaching. Throughout the retreat, the teens were engaged and fully invested, diving deep into meaningful conversations with their small groups and taking the experience seriously.

Activities included small-group discussions, a poverty simulation, skits highlighting the seven themes of Catholic Social Teaching, and presentations from speakers from the MacCanon Brown Homeless Sanctuary. It was wonderful to see our sophomores actively participating, asking questions, and growing in their understanding of how our Catholic faith calls us to serve others.

FALL FUN AND LEARNING IN FOURTH GRADE

Katie Schulz
4th Grade Teacher

Our fourth graders have been busy learning, creating, celebrating, and growing together! The fall season has brought many wonderful opportunities for learning, friendship, and fun in our classroom.

We kicked off the fall season with a Halloween Writing Contest, where students put their creativity and imaginations to work. It was so much fun seeing the unique stories and ideas they came up with! Mrs. Schulz ended up dressing up in the winner's costume- a green bunny! We also enjoyed our classroom Halloween party, filled with festive activities, treats, and plenty of smiles.

In reading, students have been participating in Literature Circles, giving them the opportunity to dive deeper into books, share their thinking, discuss characters and events, and learn from one another. It has been wonderful watching them grow as readers and become more confident sharing their ideas.

Another favorite experience in fourth grade has been spending time with our kindergarten buddies! Our fourth graders enjoyed working with the younger students on a special buddy activity. These moments give our students a chance to be leaders, show kindness, and build friendships across grade levels.

We have also been growing in our faith through our Catholic Saint Studies. Students have been learning about the lives of different saints, discovering how they lived out their faith, served others, and followed Jesus. These lessons remind us that we are all called to be saints in our own everyday actions through kindness, compassion, and love.

It has been a wonderful season of learning, laughter, creativity, and faith in fourth grade. We are so proud of the way our students continue to challenge themselves, support one another, and grow as members of our school community. We look forward to all the exciting things still to come!

10 • ADVENT OFFERINGS

Advent starts on November 29. This Advent, our theme, "Models of Holiness, Witnesses of Peace," invites us to welcome Christ more fully into our lives by learning from those who prepared the way for Him. In the first week, Our Model of Holiness- Isaiah offers a vision of hope and peace. In the second week, Our Model of Holiness- John the Baptist calls us to prepare our hearts for Christ by clearing away what keeps us from God. In the third week, Our Model of Holiness- Jesus Christ, the Anointed One, invites us to embrace the joy that His coming brings. Finally, in the fourth week, Our Model of Holiness- the Blessed Virgin Mary shows us what it means to say yes to God and become messengers of His love to the world.
