Our Mission

Campfire Education Trust (CET) will ensure all pupils, regardless of their backgrounds or starting points, can access a high quality, enriched educational offer which leads to strong outcomes.

Our mission is to establish a dynamic professional learning community across CET, and beyond, so that we can support, challenge and equip our staff to provide the best possible education for the pupils and communities that we serve.

The definition of our 'Trust' is everyone in the organisation: pupils, teachers, support staff, leaders, those in governance roles and the central team. We are all part of the Campfire Education Trust community and we recognise that we are stronger together.

Our Core Values

Collaborative

Learning is the core business at CET. As one organisation we have a collective responsibility to maximise our learning by sharing our expertise, aligning our work where it makes sense to do so and being open to different perspectives, with the understanding that we only succeed if we all succeed.

We are outward facing and actively seek opportunities to impact and contribute to the wider school system. We relish the opportunity to learn from other organisations too, recognising the importance of external collaboration and partnerships in removing the ceiling of what can be achieved.

Supportive

We are committed to creating a supportive culture of learning for all staff and pupils. Each school within CET has its own distinctive character, curriculum and identity in order to support the local needs of the pupils and communities. We celebrate this diversity and recognise it is by working together, as one wider Trust community, that we can achieve more.

Relationships are strong within schools, and across CET. We prioritise and invest time in building resilient relationships, underpinned by honesty and based on robust evaluation. We are reflective practitioners; therefore, feedback is welcomed and is rooted in our mission to provide the best possible education for pupils.

Ambitious

We are ambitious for our staff, our community of schools and all pupils. Central to this ethos is the unified goal to continuously learn and improve so that there is no limit to what can be achieved. CET facilitates and prioritises professional learning and leadership development opportunities for staff so that we build capacity for continuous improvement.

By taking a holistic approach to education we aim to provide equity of opportunity for all our pupils regardless of their starting points. By removing barriers, accelerating progress and developing the whole child through an enriched curriculum, we ensure that pupils are ready, both academically and socially, for the next stage of their education.

A community of schools in which we recognise we are stronger together

1. Aims, scope and principles

This policy aims to set and maintain standards of conduct that we expect all staff to follow. By creating this policy, we aim to ensure the school is an environment where everyone is safe, happy and treated with respect.

Many of the principles in this code of conduct are based on the Teachers' Standards.

School staff have an influential position in the school and will act as role models for pupils by consistently demonstrating high standards of behaviour.

We expect that all teachers will act in accordance with the personal and professional behaviours set out in the Teachers' Standards.

We expect all support staff, governors and volunteers to also act with personal and professional integrity, respecting the safety and wellbeing of others.

Failure to follow the code of conduct may result in disciplinary action being taken, as set out in the Conduct and Disciplinary Policy.

Please note that this code of conduct is not exhaustive. If situations arise that are not covered by this code, staff will use their professional judgement and act in the best interests of the school and its pupils.

2. Legislation and guidance

In line with the statutory safeguarding guidance Keeping Children Safe in Education, we should have a staff code of conduct, which should cover low-level concerns, allegations against staff and whistle-blowing, as well as acceptable use of technologies (including the use of mobile devices), staff/pupil relationships and communications, including the use of social media.

This policy also complies with our funding agreement and articles of association

3. General obligations

Staff set an example to pupils. They will:

- maintain high standards in their attendance and punctuality
- never use inappropriate or offensive language in school
- treat pupils and others with dignity and respect
- show tolerance and respect for the rights of others
- not undermine fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and acceptance of those with different faiths and beliefs
- not express personal beliefs in a way that exploits pupils' vulnerability or might lead them to break the law
- Understand the statutory frameworks they must act within

4. Safeguarding

Staff have a duty to safeguard pupils from harm, and to report any concerns they have. This includes physical, emotional and sexual abuse, or neglect.

Staff will familiarise themselves with our safeguarding policy and procedures and the Prevent initiative, and ensure they are aware of the processes to follow if they have concerns about a child.

Our safeguarding policy and procedures are available in the staff room and from the school office. New staff will also be given copies on arrival.

4.1 Allegations that may meet the harm threshold

This section applies to all cases in which it is alleged that anyone working in the school, including a supply teacher, volunteer or contractor, has:

- behaved in a way that has harmed a child, or may have harmed a child, and/or
- possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child, and/or
- behaved towards a child or children in a way that indicates they may pose a risk of harm to children, and/or
- behaved or may have behaved in a way that indicates they may not be suitable to work with children – this includes behaviour taking place inside or outside of school

We will deal with any such allegation quickly and in a fair and consistent way that provides effective child protection while also supporting the individual who is the subject of the allegation.

A 'case manager' will lead any investigation. This will be the headteacher, or the chair of governors where the headteacher is the subject of the allegation.

4.2 Low-level concerns about members of staff

A low-level concern is a behaviour towards a child by a member of staff that does not meet the harm threshold, is inconsistent with the staff code of conduct, and may be as simple as causing a sense of unease or a 'nagging doubt'. For example, this may include:

- being over-friendly with children
- having favourites
- taking photographs of children on a personal device
- engaging in 1-to-1 activities where they can't easily be seen
- humiliating pupils

Low-level concerns can include inappropriate conduct inside and outside of work.

All staff should share any low-level concerns they have using the reporting procedures set out in our child protection and safeguarding policy. We also encourage staff to self-refer if they find themselves in a situation that could be misinterpreted. If staff are not sure whether behaviour would be deemed a low-level concern, we encourage staff to report it.

All reports will be handled in a responsive, sensitive and proportionate way.

Unprofessional behaviour will be addressed, and the staff member supported to correct it, at an early stage.

This creates and embeds a culture of openness, trust and transparency in which our values and expected behaviour are constantly lived, monitored and reinforced by all staff, while minimising the risk of abuse.

Reporting and responding to low-level concerns is covered in more detail in our child protection policy. This is available in the policies section of our school website.

Our procedures for dealing with allegations will be applied with common sense and judgement.

4.3 Whistleblowing

Whistle-blowing reports wrongdoing that it is "in the public interest" to report. Examples linked to safeguarding include:

- pupils' or staff's health and safety being put in danger
- failure to comply with a legal obligation or statutory requirement
- attempts to cover up the above, or any other wrongdoing in the public interest

Staff are encouraged to report suspected wrongdoing as soon as possible. Their concerns will be taken seriously and investigated, and their confidentiality will be respected.

Staff should consider the examples above when deciding whether their concern is of a whistleblowing nature. Consider whether the incident(s) was illegal, breached statutory or school procedures, put people in danger or was an attempt to cover any such activity up.

Staff should report their concern to the headteacher. If the concern is about the headteacher, or it is believed they may be involved in the wrongdoing in some way, the staff member should report their concern to the governor with responsibility for whistleblowing or the Trustee with responsibility for whistleblowing as outlined within the whistleblowing policy.

Concerns should be made in writing wherever possible. They should include names of those committing wrongdoing, dates, places and as much evidence and context as possible. Staff raising a concern should also include details of any personal interest in the matter.

For our school's detailed whistle-blowing process, please refer to our whistleblowing policy

5. Staff/pupil relationships

Staff will observe proper boundaries with pupils that are appropriate to their professional position. They will act in a fair and transparent way that would not lead anyone to reasonably assume they are not doing so.

If staff members and pupils must spend time on a one-to-one basis, staff will ensure that:

- this takes place in a public place that others can access
- others can see into the room
- a colleague or line manager knows this is taking place

Staff should avoid contact with pupils outside of school hours if possible.

Personal contact details should not be exchanged between staff and pupils. This includes social media profiles.

While we are aware many pupils and their parents may wish to give gifts to staff, for example, at the end of the school year, gifts purchased by individual staff to give to individual pupils are not acceptable.

If a staff member is concerned at any point that an interaction between themselves and a pupil may be misinterpreted, or if a staff member is concerned at any point about a fellow staff member and a pupil, this should be reported in line with the procedures set out in our child protection and safeguarding policy.

6. Communication and social media

School staff's social media profiles should not be available to pupils. If they have a personal profile on social media sites, they should not use their full name, as pupils may be able to find them. Staff should consider using a first and middle name instead and set public profiles to private.

Staff should not attempt to contact pupils or their parents via social media, or any other means outside school, in order to develop any sort of relationship. They will not make any efforts to find pupils' or parents' social media profiles.

Staff will ensure that they do not post any images online that identify children who are pupils at the school without their consent.

Staff should be aware of the school's online safety policy, acceptable use policy and mobile phone policy.

7. Acceptable use of technology

Staff will not use technology in school to view material that is illegal, inappropriate or likely to be deemed offensive. This includes, but is not limited to, sending obscene emails, gambling and viewing pornography or other inappropriate content.

Staff may use technology in line with the school's online safety policy, acceptable use policy and mobile phone policy.

8. Confidentiality

In the course of their role, members of staff are often privy to sensitive and confidential information about the school, staff, pupils and their parents.

This information will never be:

- disclosed to anyone unless required by law or with consent from the relevant party or parties
- used to humiliate, embarrass or blackmail others
- used for a purpose other than what it was collected and intended for

This does not overrule staff's duty to report child protection concerns to the appropriate channel where staff believe a child has been harmed or is at risk of harm, as detailed further in our child protection and safeguarding policy.

9. Honesty and integrity

Staff should maintain high standards of honesty and integrity in their role. This includes when dealing with pupils, handling money, claiming expenses and using school property and facilities.

Staff will not accept bribes. Any gifts or hospitality offered with a value of over £25 must be recorded on the Gifts and Hospitality Register within 7 working days, even if declined (see Gifts and Hospitality Policy).

Staff will ensure that all information given to the school is correct. This should include:

- background information (including any past or current investigations/cautions related to conduct outside of school)
- qualifications
- professional experience

Where there are any updates to the information provided to the school, the member of staff will advise the school as soon as reasonably practicable. Consideration will then be given to the nature and circumstances of the matter and whether this may have an impact on the member of staff's employment.

10. Dress code

Staff will dress in a professional, appropriate manner.

Outfits will not be overly revealing, and we ask that tattoos are covered up where possible.

Clothes will not display any offensive or political slogans.

11. Conduct outside of work

Staff will not act in a way that would bring the trust, school, or the teaching profession, into disrepute. This covers conduct including but not limited to relevant criminal offences, such as violence or sexual misconduct, as well as negative comments about the school or trust on social media.

12. Monitoring arrangements

This policy will be reviewed annually but can be revised as needed. It will be ratified by the Full Trust Board.

Our Headteachers will ensure this code of conduct is implemented effectively at school level, and will ensure appropriate action is taken in a timely manner to safeguard children and deal with any concerns.
