

Who are we?

At Lace Hill Academy we follow a music programme called Kapow to support the teaching and learning of music. In Years 4, 5 and 6, all children learn to play a musical instrument for a term with a specialist music teacher. Within our school, we have class sets of recorders and glockenspiels as well as a selection of percussion instruments. Kapow also offers lessons for children to learn and play instruments. Children have weekly music lessons where they are taught the fundamentals of music such as notes, rhythm and the beat.

Parents encourage their children to be musical and we have a music teacher who comes in to provide private music lessons in guitar, piano and singing. We also have a KS2 choir group which children have the opportunity to join every year. This leads to them performing at the Young Voices concert in Birmingham.

To further celebrate music, we have weekly music assemblies. We also have daily music within the classroom as the children enter, which exposes the children to a wide genre of music. This includes genres from classical to rap, rock to jazz. Listening to the different music each week will allow the children to build upon what is being taught in their music lessons as well as develop an appreciation for all music types.

As well as discrete music lessons, music may also be used daily to:

- greet children as they enter the classroom
- set mood and tone and support pupils focus during independent learning activities.
- support daily routines e.g tidying up cues, entering and exit school assemblies.
- support the teaching of movement through dance in P.E lessons.

What do we need to know? Why?

The power of music

Music is all around us. It is the soundtrack to our lives. Music connects us through people and places in our ever-changing world. It is creative, collaborative, celebratory and challenging. In our schools, music can bring communities together through the shared endeavour of whole-school singing, ensemble playing, experimenting with the creative process and, through the love of listening to friends and fellow pupils, performing. The sheer joy of music making can feed the soul of a school community, enriching each student while strengthening the shared bonds of support and trust which make a great school.

At Lace Hill we believe Music is a practical, creative subject through which children can develop their imagination, the ability to listen attentively and the ability to express personal thoughts and feelings. The aims of studying Music in our school are for children to:

- Build a sense of community through singing and performing together.
- Celebrate both individual and collective achievements.
- Understand the importance of technology within a musical context to explore and understand how music is created, produced and communicated globally.
- Develop an awareness and appreciation for a range of genres, styles and traditions through studying works from great historical composers and musicians.
- Acquire the skills to enable children to express their ideas, thoughts and feelings through music including dance and movement.
- Develop an understanding of the inter-related dimensions in music: pitch, duration, dynamics, tempo, timbre, texture, structure and notation.
- Develop their musical vocabulary.
