

Billy And The Beast

Billy (whose big curly hair contains lots of useful things like doughnuts and crayons) and her monobrowed friend, Fatcat, are enjoying a delightful walk in the woods when they notice that the bunnies and mice have gone missing.

It turns out there is a hungry Beast collecting ingredients for a terrible soup. Can Billy persuade the Beast that his choice of forest creatures aren't as delicious as he thinks? You will have to read the book to find out more.

Key vocabulary:

Beast-An animal, especially a large or dangerous four-footed one.

Cruel- Something that will cause pain and suffering.

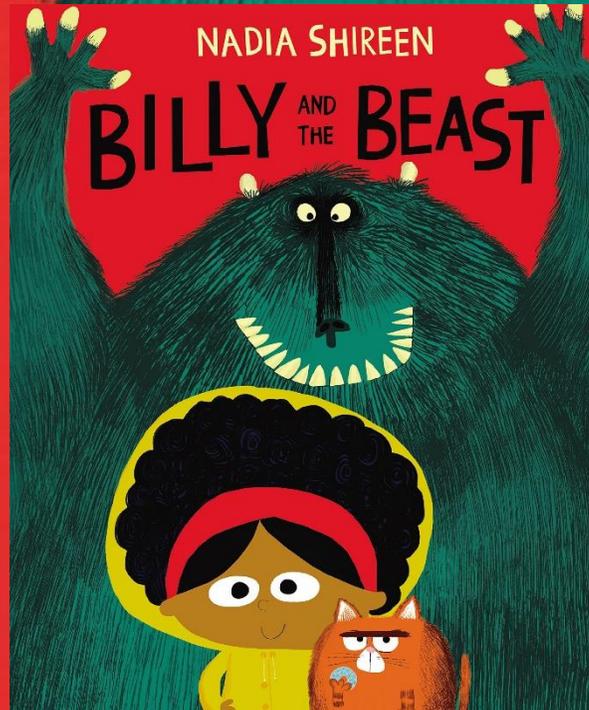

Adorable-Something that is cute or sweet e.g. bunny rabbits.

Terrible-Something extremely bad or serious.

Recipe- A set of instructions to make something. Usually food.

Persuade- The act of making somebody do something you want them to do.

Delicious- Very pleasing, very tasty.

Author:

Hello Year 1, my name is Nadia and I am an illustrator and writer.

I mostly write and illustrate picture books, but I also work in commercial illustration and occasionally journalism.

If you want to find out more about me use the QR code

Forest:

Your story is set in a forest. Have you ever visited a forest? There is so much fun to be had in a forest. You can play hide and seek in the trees and spot lots of wildlife too.

Use the QR code to find out where your local forest is and enjoy a walk in the forest with your family.

Other recommended stories...

