Where Great Gifts Meet Good Company

Branded merch that brings people together, like outdoor gear made for gathering, offers comfort, connection, and a reminder of your organization at every celebration. The GCI Outdoor® Freestyle Rocker Elite™ (page 29) is a great way show your appreciation and show off your brand.

43% of people socialize with their friends in person on a daily or weekly basis. There is a fundamental human need for belonging, social connection, information sharing, and support.

Studies have shown that people tend to be happier when they receive gifts that encourage experiences because they are perceived as more personal and imply closeness.

Traditions, Reinvented

Nostalgic Favorites with a Twist

A timeless gift becomes even more exciting with a fresh perspective. Updated features, elevated decoration, and thoughtful designs that delight bring familiar favorites into the present day. Blending the comfort of nostalgia with reimagined details creates gifting moments that feel both meaningful and unexpected.

As the year winds down, people naturally seek rituals, reflection, and the familiar joys of the season. Branded merch that taps into those emotions deepens brand affinity, making gifts feel more personal and appreciated.

Wrapped & Ready

Make a Merry Statement

The right presentation builds anticipation, sets the tone, and adds a layer of thoughtfulness that makes a lasting impression. It's a moment that matters more than ever in a world where "unboxing" has become its own form of content marketing. In fact, every month 90,000 people search "unboxing" on YouTube, and 62% of viewers watch these videos while researching a brand's products.

That's why branded packaging and thoughtful finishing touches transform a gift into an experience. When done right, packaging isn't just decorative — it's strategic, memorable, and a powerful extension of your brand.

- Reach out to brainstorm ideas and place your order – we are just a message away!

Smart brands don't wait for December to say thank you! Gift-giving is a year-round marketing power move that keeps your brand top-of-mind and your relationships going strong.

January

Kick off the year with branded planners, wellness kits, or gifts that relate to company goals.

March

Celebrate Employee Appreciation Day and set up a quarterly milestone recognition program.

May

Celebrate Small Business Week, Teacher Appreciation Week, or work anniversaries with heartfelt, brand-forward gifts.

July

Send summer fun kits to show how much you appreciate your clients and field teams that increase their travel during warmer months.

September

Back-to-business gifts spark renewed motivation in industries that experience summer slowdowns.

October

Campaigns like Breast Cancer Awareness or gifting autumn-inspired treats create timely touchpoints that help start Q4 strong.

Branded Gifts Help Your Marketing Message Stick – with Sparkle and Style

- 83% of people are more likely to do business with a brand after receiving a promotional product.
- 62% of recipients keep a branded gift for a year or more.
- 91% of employees say they want their company to recognize their contributions with tokens of appreciation like gifts and company shoutouts.
