About Us

Paintings for Pediatrics is an all-volunteer organization dedicated to fighting childhood cancer through the power of art. We provide pediatric patients and their families with art supplies, giving them a creative outlet to express themselves on canvas. Each year, we host a gala where their artwork is auctioned to raise funds in support of our mission.

Our Mission

At Paintings for Pediatrics, our mission is to raise awareness, fund critical research, and provide financial relief for families facing childhood cancer.

We envision a world where every child battling cancer feels supported, empowered, and heard.

Through our efforts, we strive to make a meaningful impact on young lives while helping families regain confidence and a sense of belonging.

Why Partner With Us

When you partner with Paintings for Pediatrics, you help give children a fighting chance against cancer and life-threatening illnesses.

We collaborate with organizations and individuals to build stronger communities—both locally and nationally—united in the fight for the health, wellness, and financial stability of families facing pediatric cancer.
