My Dear Friends in Christ,

Last week, during my State of the Parish address, I shared one of my hopes for our community: that we may one day be known as a parish stewardship. This vision is both a great challenge and a sacred calling — one that invites us to deepen our commitment to living out the Gospel in tangible ways.

For many years, the bishops of the United States have placed a strong emphasis on Christian stewardship, promoting it through seminars, publications, and annual conferences. Thanks to these efforts, many parishes across the country have experienced remarkable renewal and growth. Yet, for many of us, the word “stewardship” remains unfamiliar — even intimidating. As Fr. Dan Danielson humorously noted, “Catholics are more familiar with the word bingo!” Still, I return to this topic today because it is vital to our future. Unless we embrace a stewardship way of life, we will struggle to grow as a vibrant, engaged, and faith-filled community.

Our baptismal call invites — even compels — us to build a community of faith, one in which each person shares their time, talent, and treasure. This is why we must each ask ourselves a crucial question: Am I a good steward — a cheerful, responsible caretaker of all that God has entrusted to me?

This question is more than rhetorical. It has the power to transform both our individual spiritual lives and our parish community. Is there a true sense of responsibility within me? Am I living a life of gratitude, of thanksgiving? I’ve said it before: stewardship must be deeply personal and spiritual. It should not be something we do out of obligation, but rather a way of life — a natural expression of our love for God and neighbor.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus tells us:

“Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough.”

These are challenging words, reminding us that discipleship requires intention, sacrifice, and strength.

In 1993, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops released a powerful document titled Stewardship: A Disciple’s Response. I’d like to share a key reflection from that document: Who is a Christian disciple?

One who responds to Christ’s call, follows Jesus, and shapes his or her life in imitation of Christ.

Who is a Christian steward?

One who receives God’s gifts gratefully, cherishes and tends them in a responsible and accountable manner, shares them generously in justice and love with others, and returns them with increase to the Lord.

The Book of Genesis reminds us that God placed humanity in the garden “to cultivate and care for it” (Gen 2:15). That mission continues today. The world — and our parish — is a kind of garden entrusted to us for the glory of God and the good of all.

So let this be a beginning. A seed. A call to grow as disciples and as a community that lives in gratitude, in faith, and in generous response to the love of our faithful God.

Finally, in the spirit of stewardship, I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to all who helped organize the beautiful celebration honoring the life and faith of Ricky Delos Reyes. It was a moving tribute, and so well deserved.

With prayers for our continued growth in Christ,

In His peace,

Fr. Geoffrey

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"Strive to enter through the narrow gate," Jesus tells us. "Many will attempt...but will not be strong enough."

So let us never be so foolish that we rely on our own strength. Narrow does not mean unpassable — not if we ask for help.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

"Esfuércense por entrar por la puerta estrecha", nos dice Jesús. "Muchos lo intentarán... pero no serán lo suficientemente fuertes". Así que nunca seamos tan tontos como para confiar en nuestras propias fuerzas. Estrecho no significa intransitable, no si pedimos ayuda.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Basilica Versus Cathedral

Question:

What is the difference between a basilica and a cathedral?

Answer:

Basilicas are churches that are so titled because of their antiquity, dignity, historical importance, or significance as centers of worship. A cathedral is the principal church of a diocese, which contains the chair of the bishop, or "cathedra" in Latin. The chair is the symbol of the bishop's teaching authority.

¿POR QUÉ HACEMOS ESO? - VIDA CATÓLICA EXPLICADA

Basilica versus Cathedral

Pregunta:

¿Cuál es la diferencia entre una basílica y una catedral?

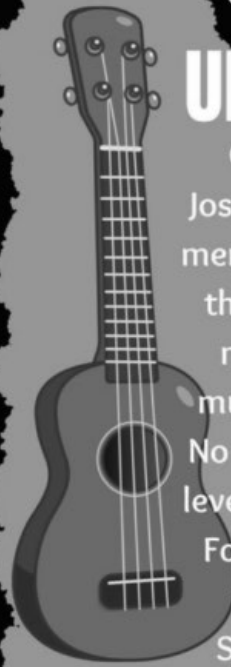

Respuesta:

Las basílicas son iglesias que se llaman así debido a su antigüedad, dignidad, importancia histórica o significado como centros de culto. Una catedral es la iglesia principal de una diócesis, que contiene la silla del obispo, o "cátedra" en latín. La silla es el símbolo de la autoridad del obispo para enseñar.
