My dear friends in Christ,

I pray that you all had a joyful and truly blessed New Year's Day celebration. On Christmas Day, we rejoiced in the mystery of God's love made visible as we celebrated the birth of Jesus—His coming into the world, His birthday among us.

Today, on the Solemnity of the Epiphany, our celebration widens and deepens. We rejoice not only that Christ has come, but that He has come for all.

The word Epiphany comes from the Greek meaning manifestation or revelation. It reminds us that in Jesus, God reveals His saving love to every nation, every people, every heart. The journey of the Magi from the East, guided by the star, brings this truth to life. Their encounter with the Holy Child, held by Mary and protected by Joseph, was not meant for them alone—it was meant for the whole world. Jesus is not the Savior of a few; He is the Savior of all.

In today's Gospel, we hear that the Magi brought gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. These were precious offerings, but even more meaningful was the gift of their hearts—their faith, their trust, and their willingness to seek the truth no matter how far the journey.

Each time we gather for the Eucharist, we too encounter Christ in a new Bethlehem. Here, the Lord gives Himself to us—His love, His mercy, His very life. And as we come before Him, an important question is placed before our hearts: What gift are we bringing to Him? On Christmas, God gave us the greatest gift of all—His Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. On the Feast of the Epiphany, we are invited and challenged to respond. What do we offer in return? Our faith? Our time? Our forgiveness? Our desire to change and grow closer to Him?

The Gospel tells us that after encountering Christ, the Magi returned to their homeland by another way. This detail is rich with meaning. Their meeting with the Savior transformed them. They could not go back the same way they came. They had been changed, inspired, and sent forth with a new purpose.

My friends, when we encounter Christ in the Eucharist, does it transform us? Does it inspire us to go out and proclaim, by our words and our lives, that the Savior has been born? Our world today is filled with darkness—loneliness, fear, division, despair, and uncertainty. Many people wake up each day burdened by these realities, wondering when it will all end.

Our world is in need of saving. Our world is in need of hope. People are searching for a star to follow—something, or someone, who will lead them to light and life. We are called to be that star. Through acts of forgiveness, compassion, joy, and love, we can lead others to the Savior of the world.

As we conclude this Christmas season, I want to extend a heartfelt thank you to all who helped make our celebrations so beautiful—through your service, your generosity, your talents, and your faith. May the light of Christ, revealed at Epiphany, continue to shine through each one of us.

In Christ,
Fr. Geoffrey

PARISH, DIOCESAN & OTHER EVENTS/FAITHFUL STEWARDSHIP

St. Joseph School What is Happening at St. Joseph School

A Christmas Prayer from the St. Joseph School Community

Loving God, on this holy Christmas season, we thank You for the gift of Your Son, Jesus, our Light and our Hope. As we gather with family, friends, and our parish community, open our hearts to the wonder of His birth. Fill our homes with peace, our minds with gratitude, and our lives with charity and joy.

Bless all parishioners of St. Joseph and the families we serve. May the example of the Holy Family inspire us to live with faith, patience, and love. Strengthen us in times of challenge, guide us in moments of decision, and help us carry Christ's light into the world.

May this Christmas renew our spirits, deepen our trust in Your care, and draw us closer to You and to one another. We ask this in the name of Jesus, our Emmanuel. Amen.

Applications for the 2026-2027 School year at St. Joseph School is now open for Preschool, Junior Kindergarten, Kindergarten through 8th grades.

Tell your friends and family about the wonderful school that teaches the heart, mind and spirit.

Purchase a brick to support St. Joseph School and help "build" community!

When you sponsor a brick, it can be personalized with words and images reflecting your experience at St. Joseph, including sports and other cherished activities.

You can also personalize a brick in honor of a loved one who has a St. Joseph connection.

The bricks will be placed in the Middle School quad to be viewed for years to come. All bricks will be made of clay, and the same size, color, and font of the already existing bricks in the quad. All verbiage will be approved by the administration before the engraving is ordered. Three lines of 20 characters each can fit on the brick.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The journey of the Magi reflects how treacherous our Christian life on earth can be. Always, evil works against us Satan lays traps. He sows confusion. May we, like the Magi, recognize the will of God as our guiding star.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Las noticias del Mesías inquietaron a Herodes. Vemos claramente su ansiedad en el Evangelio de hoy. Después de todo, esto es lo que Cristo ha venido a hacer. Ha venido a sacudir las cosas. ¿Estamos preparados para ser inquietados?

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

The Three Wise Men

Question:

Magi, Three Kings, Three Wise Men...who were they?

Answer:

We sing songs, give gifts, and move three mysterious men into our manger scenes. There's a rich heritage in the Catholic Church of celebrating the magi, but their origins are steeped in mystery. The original Greek calls these men magoi. The word is translated elsewhere in Scripture to mean "magician," but a similar word was used in ancient history to describe an entirely different set of people altogether. In what is now modern-day Iran, the ruling empire had a wealthy priestly caste known as the Magi. At the time of Christ, the Magi formed one of the ruling councils of the Parthian Empire. These priests interpreted dreams and read the stars to anticipate major events that could affect the fortunes of the empire.

We're not exactly sure where the magi of the Gospels traveled from. Matthew simply says "the east." History tells us that the ancient regions of Persia, Assyria, and Babylon all had a magi priesthood at the time of Christ. Whichever region they hailed from, they likely traveled over one thousand miles over the course of several months to arrive at the Holy Family. Unfortunately for the classic song, there is no concrete evidence these men were themselves kings, though they did bear gifts "from afar" at the prompting of their astronomical calculations.

¿POR QUÉ HACEMOS ESO? - VIDA CATÓLICA EXPLICADA

Los Reyes Magos

Pregunta:

Los Magos, Los Tres Reyes, Los Tres Reyes Magos...

¿Quiénes eran?

Respuesta:

Cantamos canciones, damos regalos y llevamos a tres hombres misteriosos a nuestras escenas de pesebre. Hay una rica herencia en la Iglesia Católica de celebrar a los Reyes Magos, pero sus orígenes están llenos de misterio. El griego original llama a estos hombres magoi. La palabra se traduce en otras partes de las Escrituras para significar "mago", pero una palabra similar se usó en la historia antigua para describir a un grupo completamente diferente de personas. En lo que hoy es Irán, el imperio gobernante tenía una rica casta sacerdotal conocida como los Reyes Magos. En la época de Cristo, los Reyes Magos formaron uno de los consejos gobernantes del Imperio Parto. Estos sacerdotes interpretaban los sueños y leían las estrellas para anticipar acontecimientos importantes que podrían afectar la fortuna del imperio. No estamos exactamente seguros de dónde viajaron los magos de los Evangelios. Mateo simplemente dice "el oriente". La historia nos dice que las antiguas regiones de Persia, Asiria y Babilonia tenían un sacerdocio de magos en la época de Cristo. Independientemente de la región de la que provenían, probablemente viajaron más de mil millas en el transcurso de varios meses para llegar a la Sagrada Familia. Desafortunadamente para la canción clásica, no hay evidencia concreta de que estos hombres fueran reyes, aunque sí trajeron regalos "desde lejos" a instancias de sus cálculos astronómicos.

ST. PATRICK'S RODEO GIFT SHOP

Just a reminder that St. Patrick's Rodeo has a Gift Shop managed by the Altar Society and is open after all Masses on the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month. We have a supply of Jubilee items including keychains, magnets and some jewelry. We will also have personalized angel ornaments for sale. Please stop by and see our other religious items. ALL proceeds go toward providing needed items for the church.
