THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets. - Lk 9:16-17

My dear friends in Christ,

Today, we joyfully celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. This is a day of profound reverence, as we honor the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.

Body of Christ! Blood of Christ! These life-giving words echo in our hearts every time we approach the altar to receive the Eucharist. Long before His death, Jesus instituted this sacred meal during the Jewish Passover Feast. In Mark's account of the Last Supper, Jesus takes the bread, blesses it, breaks it, and declares, "This is my body." Afterward, He takes the cup of wine, gives thanks, and says, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many." In this moment, Jesus establishes a new covenant, a divine intervention that commemorates God's powerful liberation of His people from slavery.

Every time we gather around the table of the Lord, we obey Christ's command to "Do this in remembrance of me." In doing so, the past becomes present, and His power and love are made manifest in our lives.

From the very beginning, Sunday has been set apart as the day of Christ's resurrection. On that first Easter Sunday morning, Jesus appeared to His disciples, and in that encounter, they realized that death was not the end of their experience of God through Jesus. Sunday became the day of great anticipation, when they would gather in prayer, share the Scriptures, and break the bread, awaiting His return in glory. As their understanding deepened, they came to recognize that it was in these communal acts—gathering together, listening to the Word, and breaking the bread—that they encountered the Risen Christ.

This continues to be true for us today. Sunday remains the day when Christians gather to experience the Risen Christ. Through our prayer, the reading of Scripture, and the sharing in the Eucharist, we come into the presence of God, and our lives are transformed. The Eucharistic celebration is where we are made whole, healed, and energized. It is where we are reminded of God's deep love for us and where we experience the communion of the Church, united in Christ.

It's important to recognize that the celebration of the Eucharist is not just about personal attendance. The community needs you. Your presence is not just for your own benefit, but for the whole Church. When a member is missing, something is lacking from the celebration. It is not enough simply to "attend Mass"—we are called to be fully engaged in the community, to participate actively, and to contribute to the richness of the worship experience. How we engage matters. Our participation should be with reverence and gratitude, for we are sharing in the very life of Christ.

Sadly, many Catholics take the Eucharist for granted. We often come to Mass late, leave early, or let our minds wander. We may chat with each other during Mass, or dress in ways we wouldn't for a special occasion. While in line for Communion, our thoughts may stray, and we miss the sacredness of the moment when Christ comes into our hearts. The Church reminds us that our participation should be "full and active." We should approach the altar with the same reverence we would if we were meeting Jesus face-to-face.

Every time we walk toward the altar, we should feel the excitement and awe of receiving the Body and Blood of Christ. This feast reminds us of the power of that moment. Every day, we are invited to make room in our hearts for His Presence, so that whatever we face in life, we will be sustained by His love.

Like a book that remains closed until we open it, Christ remains external to us until we invite Him into our hearts. When we allow Him in, our lives are transformed. As St. Paul says, "It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me."

As we continue our journey of faith, let us remember that the Eucharist is the living bread that came down from heaven. It is the gift of Christ, who transforms us into His Body. In receiving the Eucharist, we are called to give and share the life and love of Jesus with the world.

The Eucharist is a gift of love, broken and blessed by Jesus for us. Let us treasure this great gift, and let our lives reflect the love and sacrifice it represents.

God bless you all! VIVA LA FIESTA DE CORPUS CHRISTI!

In peace,
Fr. Geoffrey

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Five loaves and two fish: a measly portion of food for such a large crowd of people. But we must remember that it doesn't matter what the size of our offering is. If we only lay it before Christ, he will take it and make it a mighty bounty.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Cinco panes y dos peces: una mísera porción de comida para una multitud tan grande de personas. Pero debemos recordar que no importa cuál sea el tamaño de nuestra oferta. Si tan solo lo ponemos delante de Cristo, él lo tomará y lo convertirá en una gran recompensa.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Sign Before the Gospel

Question:

I have been going to Mass for years and have always wondered: why do we make the three signs of the cross before the Gospel?

Answer:

Certainly, many people go to Mass or other devotions, doing and saying things out of habit or reverence and not really understanding the reasons behind some of these things. But everything we do has a meaning or purpose that helps us to worship better, proclaim our beliefs, or focus the attention of the people on something that has a greater importance or significance. A review of the meaning of various gestures and practices can help us have a deeper appreciation for what we do. There is a little prayer that goes with the three crosses before the Gospel: "May the words of the Holy Gospel be on my mind, on my lips and in my heart." In standing to hear the Gospel, we acknowledge that Jesus is present, and the words of the Gospel are addressed to us. All of the gestures and special postures we adopt before the Gospel are intended to help us prepare for hearing the Word as well as act on it. The incense, the Alleluia, the deacon or priest, and the special dialogue and announcement that introduces the Gospel help us focus our attention on the Good News we are about to hear. The three signs of the cross show our desire and good intention to hear and live the Gospel.

¿POR QUÉ HACEMOS ESO? - VIDA CATÓLICA EXPLICADA

Persignarse antes de la proclamación del Evangelio Pregunta:

He participado en Misa por años y siempre me he preguntado: ¿Por qué hacemos tres señales de la cruz antes de la proclamación del Evangelio?

Respuesta:

Muchas personas ciertamente van a Misa o tienen otras devociones, haciendo y diciendo cosas por la costumbre o reverencia, pero sin comprender verdaderamente los motivos por los cuales hacemos algunas de estas cosas. Sin embargo, todo tiene un significado o propósito que nos ayuda a dar mejor culto a Dios, proclamar nuestras creencias o centrar la atención de las personas en algo que tiene una mayor importancia o significado. Un repaso del significado de varios gestos y prácticas nos pueden ayudar a tener una valoración más profunda de lo que hacemos.

Hay una oración breve que acompaña las tres cruces que hacemos antes de la proclamación del Evangelio: "Que las palabras del Santo Evangelio estén en mi mente, en mis labios y en mi corazón". Al ponernos en pie para escuchar el Evangelio, reconocemos que Jesús está presente y que las palabras del Evangelio se dirigen a nosotros. Todos los gestos y posturas especiales que adoptamos antes del Evangelio se hacen para ayudarnos a prepararnos para escuchar la Palabra y para ponerla en práctica. El incienso, el Aleluya, el diácono o sacerdote, y el diálogo especial y anuncios que anteceden la proclamación, nos ayudan a enfocar nuestra atención en la Buena Nueva que vamos a escuchar. Las tres señales de la cruz muestran nuestro deseo y buena intención de escuchar y vivir el Evangelio.
