Pastor's Message

My dear friends in Christ,

This has been a very difficult journey to focus on. Are we still together? Where are we now? Has our relationship with one another changed? Do you find this Lenten journey transforming and fulfilling?

Perhaps one of the most memorable moments in the history of this country was in the 1960s! It was a decade of new discoveries and space exploration. It was a time when the world witnessed the first landing on the moon. It was a decade of Golden Age Television: the Ed Sullivan Show, I love Lucy, That Girl. It was a time of great movies: The Sound of Music, Oliver, the Apartment. It was a decade of new fashion, from Elvis's haircuts to the Beatles.

But the 1960's was also a decade that changed the course of our history. It was a time of social and political unrest. There were the antiwar demonstrations on the Vietnam War and the civil rights movements. It was a decade of racial division and violence. It was a time of irrational atmosphere. It was a time when you were seen not in the content of your character but in the color of your skin. It was a time of hate and anger that resulted in people, young and old, men and women, helpless and innocent, being killed or hurt. It was a time of condemnation and ignorance!

Sad to say that these things still exist in our society today! This is the kind of behavior that we need to change before we get to the waters of life at Easter! In the Gospel of John, Jesus talks about this human behavior that has no place in our society! Jesus challenges us, "Let the one among you who is without sin cast the first stone!"

On this Fifth Sunday of Lent, Jesus is asking us to examine our hearts. Jesus is asking us today in the Gospel (Cycle A) to rise from the tomb of condemnation and hatred, from the tomb of prejudice and ignorance, from the tomb of selfishness and self-centeredness, from the tomb of anger and hatred. He calls us from the darkness of our tomb: "Lazarus, come out!"

Today as he did two thousand years ago, Jesus calls us, the Lazarus of today, to a higher standard of living in following the commandment to love and to rise from the darkness of our spiritual tomb.

Jesus many times mentioned that anger and ignorance has no place in our life and in the kingdom! He said that anger can lead to violence and murder. During this season of Lent, Jesus is inviting us to fill our hearts with beauty, forgiveness, and reconciliation. He demands a greater awareness and motivation and a holier way of life through personal transformation and conversion. The gospel challenges us to be a person and reflection of God in the world, loving as God loves, caring as God cares, forgiving as God forgives. This is a call to Christian life. This is the way to the kingdom!

I believe that if we want to find meaning in our Lenten journey, we need to let go of the so-called "bad habits of the heart!" Today Jesus invites us to rise for a new beginning especially as we are about to enter the holiest week of our liturgical year! Yes, I know of the challenge and the difficulty of this Covid19 we are all facing! But I have seen people from all walks of life, journeying together and discovering each other as brothers and sisters, putting aside their differences by planting the seed of love and forgiveness in their hearts. We are together, more reflective, and prayerful during this time! What a grace moment! People have decided that anger and ignorance and hatred have no place in our hearts. From being so distant and so different from each other in the past, now they are closer and more connected than ever with each other despite the distance but brought together by LOVE and our FAITH!

Our LENTEN JOURNEY continues: BEING WITH JESUS IN THE DESERT! May God bless us all in our journey towards the waters of life at Easter!

In Christ, Fr. Geoffrey

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Out of love for us, God sent His son into the world, to illuminate the truth that brings salvation. But light can be blinding to eyes that have only seen darkness. Pray that God will teach us to walk bravely in the light.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Por amor a nosotros, Dios envió a Su Hijo al mundo, para iluminar la verdad que trae la salvación. Pero la luz puede cegar a los ojos que sólo han visto oscuridad. Ora para que Dios nos enseñe a caminar con valentía en la luz.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Differences Between Priest & Brothers

Question:

What's the difference between priests and brothers, friars, etc.?

Answer:

The distinctions titles and categories used for priests and the male members of religious communities can be confusing, especially since the categories can sometimes be intertwined as a man can be both a priest and a monk, or a brother and a friar. So, to help to piece the puzzle together, it's important to begin by noting some basic distinctions:

The distinction between priests (who are ordained for sacramental ministry) and brothers (who are non-ordained members of religious communities and who are committed to lives of prayer and service).

Priests: A priest is a man who has been ordained for sacramental ministry and these fall into two categories:

A) Diocesan (or Secular) Priests can either be attached to a diocese and who serve under a bishop. Their ministry is usually oriented toward pastoral service. B) Religious Priests are members of religious communities (like the Franciscans, Jesuits, Salvatorians, or Carmelites) and their lives are guided by the special mission and charisma of their community. While both kinds of priest practice sacramental ministry, their spirituality and how they live out their priesthood can be very different.

Brothers: Brothers are non-ordained members of religious communities (such as those mentioned above) who live lives committed to prayer and service. Religious priests and brothers serve together in their communities and their ministries include much more than the care of parishes.

Monks, Friars, and Canons: These are broad categories that include religious priests and brothers, and each of these is connected to specific ways of life and spiritualities.

¿POR QUÉ HACEMOS ESO? - VIDA CATÓLICA EXPLICADA

Diferencias entre sacerdotes y hermanos

Pregunta:

¿Qué es la diferencia entre los sacerdotes, hermanos, frailes, etc.?

Respuesta:

Pueden ser confusos los distintos títulos y categorías para los sacerdotes y los miembros de las comunidades religiosas, especialmente porque las categorías a veces pueden estar entrelazadas porque un hombre puede ser un sacerdote y un monje, o un hermano y también fraile.

Para ayudar a armar el rompecabezas, es importante comenzar señalando algunas distinciones básicas:

La distinción entre sacerdotes: son ordenados para el ministerio sacramental y los hermanos: son miembros no ordenados de comunidades religiosas y están comprometidos con vidas de oración y servicio.

Los sacerdotes: Un sacerdote es un hombre que ha sido ordenado para el ministerio sacramental y estos se dividen en dos categorías: A) Los sacerdotes diocesanos (o seculares) pueden ser adjuntos a una diócesis y que sirven bajo un obispo. Su ministerio típicamente está orientado hacia el servicio pastoral. B) Los sacerdotes religiosos son miembros de comunidades religiosas, como los franciscanos, jesuitas, salvatorianos o carmelitas, y sus vidas se guían por la misión especial y el carisma de su comunidad. Aunque ambos tipos de sacerdotes practican el ministerio sacramental, su espiritualidad y cómo viven su sacerdocio pueden ser muy diferentes.

Los hermanos: Los hermanos son miembros no ordenados de comunidades religiosas (como las mencionadas anteriormente) que viven vidas comprometidas con la oración y el servicio. Los sacerdotes y hermanos religiosos sirven juntos en sus comunidades y sus ministerios incluyen mucho más que el cuidado de las parroquias.

Monjes, frailes y canónigos: Estas son categorías amplias que incluyen sacerdotes y hermanos religiosos, y cada uno de ellos está conectado a formas específicas de vida y espiritualidades.
