OUR LENTEN JOURNEY: 40 Days of Lent- Discovering the Quietness of the Desert

My dear friends in Christ,

What a powerful, transforming, and grace-filled Parish Lenten Mission we have just experienced! My heart is filled with gratitude. I extend my sincere thanks to the members of our Pastoral Council, the Media Ministry, our sacristans, and the many generous hands who worked behind the scenes throughout these three days. Your dedication and love for our parish made this mission a beautiful encounter with the Lord.

I pray that all who attended were inspired - by the words proclaimed, the music offered, the witness of faith shared, and the spirit of prayer that united us. May the seeds planted in our hearts continue to grow.

The Gospel account of the Transfiguration in Matthew reminds us of a profound “mountaintop” moment in the lives of Peter, James, and John. As Jesus prayed, His face changed in appearance and His clothing became dazzling white. Moses and Elijah appeared beside Him - great figures of the Law and the Prophets — and in that radiant moment the disciples beheld the glory of Christ, the beloved Son in whom the Father is well pleased.

It was surely a “WOW” moment - a moment of awe, peace, and overwhelming beauty. Peter, speaking for them all, said, “Master, it is good that we are here!” He even wanted to build tents and remain there. Who wouldn’t? When we encounter God so clearly, we long to stay in that place forever.

Yet the Transfiguration was not the destination. It was preparation.

In our own lives, we too experience “mountaintop” moments - times of clarity, joy, healing, and spiritual renewal. Our Lenten Mission was one of those moments. But as tempting as it is to remain in that comfort and light, discipleship calls us to descend the mountain. Jesus leads us back into the valleys of daily life - where there is suffering, sacrifice, uncertainty, and the call to love more deeply.

Our Eucharistic celebration is itself a mountaintop experience - a true moment of transfiguration. In every Mass, we glimpse God’s glory and encounter His living presence. It is good for us to be here. But the Mass does not end with comfort; it begins with mission. We are sent forth.

Our Christian journey is not about remaining in our comfort zone. It is about carrying the light of Christ into the world. We walk with Him not only in glory but also on the road to the Cross - trusting that true joy and fulfillment are found through love that sacrifices.

One concrete way we live this out during Lent is through almsgiving. Love of God must be expressed in love of neighbor. Have we become a source of joy for those we meet? Love is not merely a feeling - it is action. It is sharing our time, our talents, and our treasures. It is choosing generosity over indifference, compassion over comfort.

Peter, James, and John eventually went down the mountain with Jesus and followed Him toward Jerusalem. At first, they longed for Easter without Good Friday. But they would come to understand that the glory of the Resurrection is inseparable from the sacrifice of the Cross.

May the grace we received during our Lenten Mission strengthen us to walk faithfully with Christ - down the mountain, through the cross, and toward the joy that awaits.

In Christ’s love and peace,
Fr. Geoffrey

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

“Go forth,” God told Abram. We hear that message again in the Transformation: go forth. We cannot always remain where we are comfortable. We cannot always remain where things are simple. We must go forth.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

"Vete", le dijo Dios a Abram. Escuchamos ese mensaje nuevamente en la Transformación: adelante. No podemos quedarnos siempre donde nos sentimos cómodos. No podemos quedarnos siempre donde las cosas son simples. Debemos seguir adelante.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EX- PLAINED

Violent Conflicts

Question:

What is the Christian attitude towards violent conflicts?

Answer:

In the Beatitudes, Jesus teaches us “Blessed are the peacemakers” and to “love your enemies.” All human beings are made in God’s image and likeness. We are one human family — brothers and sisters despite what divides us. Christians have the obligation to prioritize peaceful means to resolve conflicts. War wreaks a toll on a nation. Civilians bear a disproportionate burden of this cost during the war itself and as the nation rebuilds. However, those in authority have the obligation to protect the innocent.

During the gradual fall of the Roman Empire, theologians began to theorize that war could be just if it was a defensive measure of last resort. The “Just War Theory” was later expanded by St. Thomas Aquinas, who also included moral obligations during the war itself, including the protection of civilians. Those in public authority have the obligation to carefully examine their motives, agendas, and rationale for violent force. Should a cause be just, those who fight and defend under such circumstances must be valued and honored. They deserve our support both during and after the war.

¿POR QUÉ HACEMOS ESO? - VIDA CATÓLICA EXPLICADA

Pregunta:

¿Cuál es la actitud cristiana hacia los conflictos violentos?

Respuesta:

En las Bienaventuranzas, Jesús nos enseña: "Bienaventurados los que trabajan por la paz" y a "amar a los enemigos". Todos los seres humanos están hechos a imagen y semejanza de Dios. Somos una sola familia humana, hermanos y hermanas a pesar de lo que nos divide. Los cristianos tienen la obligación de dar prioridad a los medios pacíficos para resolver los conflictos. La guerra causa estragos en una nación. Los civiles soportan una carga desproporcionada de este costo durante la propia guerra y a medida que la nación se reconstruye. Sin embargo, las autoridades tienen la obligación de proteger a los inocentes.

Durante la caída gradual del Imperio Romano, los teólogos comenzaron a teorizar que la guerra podía ser justa si era una medida defensiva de último recurso. La "Teoría de la Guerra Justa" fue ampliada más tarde por Santo Tomás de Aquino, quien también incluyó las obligaciones morales durante la guerra misma, incluida la protección de los civiles. Aquellos en la autoridad pública tienen la obligación de examinar cuidadosamente sus motivos, agendas y razones para la fuerza violenta. Si una causa es justa, aquellos que luchan y defienden en tales circunstancias deben ser valorados y honrados. Merecen nuestro apoyo tanto durante como después de la guerra.

BLESSING OF HOPE

In Your goodness Lord, bless us.

Help us to know Your abundance and Your gifts.

Help us to hear Your voice and know Your assurance.

Help us remember what You have done,

and look forward to what You will do.

Amen.
