My dear friends in Christ,

This Sunday, we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, the final Sunday of our liturgical year before we begin the season of Advent.

In a world wounded by violence, division, despair, and suffering, this feast reminds us of the true meaning of Christ's kingship. Instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925, the Solemnity of Christ the King reminds us that no earthly power or authority no earthly power or authority can ever surpass the authority of Christ. Jesus is our King, and His Kingdom will have no end!

But what kind of King is Jesus? Unlike earthly rulers, He does not reign through force, intimidation, or worldly power. He reigns through love, truth, mercy, and compassion. His crown is made of thorns, His throne is the Cross, and His greatest expression of power is His willingness to lay down His life for us.

In this Sunday's Gospel, even while hanging on the Cross, Jesus offers mercy to the repentant thief: "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise." What a beautiful reminder that our King is a King of compassion and forgiveness! He understands our struggles, knows our weaknesses, and welcomes us whenever we approach Him with humble and trusting hearts.

To belong to Christ's Kingdom means that we must also live according to the values of our King. At the final judgment, Jesus will remind us that whatever we do for the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the sick, and those in need, we do for Him. Ultimately, the measure of our lives will not be how much wealth we accumulate or how much power we possess, but how much we have loved. Love is not simply a feeling; it is an action. It means showing mercy, extending forgiveness, and reaching out to those who need us most.

If Christ is truly our King, may others recognize His Kingdom through the way we love and serve one another. VIVA CRISTO REY! LONG LIVE CHRIST THE KING!

This coming Thursday, we celebrate Thanksgiving Day. Many of us will gather with family and friends, while others will spend the day serving the homeless and reaching out to the poor. Whatever we do, let us make it a genuine moment of thanksgiving. I look forward to celebrating Thanksgiving Day Mass with you that morning. Before gathering around our dinner tables, let us first gather around the Lord's table to give thanks.

What are you thankful for? Personally, I thank God for my family and friends who have stood by me through the good times and the bad.

I also thank God for YOU—this wonderful community of faith. Thank you for your generosity, support, dedication, and faithfulness. I am grateful for your continued participation in our parish life and your support of the Bishop's Appeal: ONE FAITH! ONE FAMILY! ONE MISSION!

I thank God for the many babies I have baptized and for the children who brighten my day with their enthusiastic high-fives, and for our young people whose lively faith and innocent spirit bring so much joy to our community. These may seem like little things, but they are BIG blessings!

This Thanksgiving, let us thank God for the moon and the stars, the birds in the sky, the beautiful sunsets, the flowers around us, our families, our friends, and our community of faith. We may not be a perfect community, but we are blessed to have one another as brothers and sisters in Christ.

Most of all, let us thank God for the greatest gift of all: His Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord and King, who shows us the meaning of love, mercy, and eternal life.

My dear friends, let us spend less time complaining about what we do not have and more time appreciating the blessings we have received.

GOD IS GOOD! GIVE THANKS TO HIM ALWAYS! HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO YOU AND YOUR FAMILIES! With a grateful heart, Your grateful servant, Fr. Geoffrey

St. Joseph School
Learning through Faith, Service, and Community

What is Happening at St. Joseph School

As we celebrate this season of Thanksgiving, the students, faculty, and staff of St. Joseph School extend our gratitude to our wonderful parish community. We are truly blessed by your continued prayers, generosity, encouragement, and unwavering support of our school. Your faith and commitment help us nurture the hearts, minds, and spirits of our students, guiding them to grow in faith, knowledge, and service to others. Thanksgiving reminds us that God's greatest blessings are often found in the people who surround us. We are especially grateful for the beautiful partnership between our parish and school, united in faith and strengthened by community. May your Thanksgiving be filled with God's abundant blessings, the warmth of family and friends, and hearts overflowing with gratitude.

From our St. Joseph School family to yours, we wish you a blessed, peaceful, and Happy Thanksgiving!

WE'RE HIRING! St. Joseph School is looking for a dedicated, enthusiastic, and caring Full-Time Instructional Assistant to join our 4th grade classroom team! We are seeking someone who enjoys working with children, values Catholic education, and is committed to creating a positive and supportive learning environment.

Ideal candidates should have:

- Experience working with elementary school-age students.
- Strong communication and collaboration skills.
- The ability to work closely with the classroom teacher and fellow instructional assistants.
- A positive, patient, flexible, and dependable attitude.
- Preferred: Previous classroom experience and a minimum of an Associate of Arts (AA) degree.

This is a wonderful opportunity to become part of our St. Joseph School community and make a meaningful difference in the lives of our students! We welcome our school families and parishioners to share this opportunity with anyone who may be a great fit!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God At the end of time, the ones who neglected God will claim ignorance. "We never saw you!" they'll insist. But God is everywhere, making Himself known in every time and place. We can see Him, respond to Him or we can look the other way. Which will we choose?

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Dios. Al final de los tiempos, quienes descuidaron a Dios reclamarán ignorancia. "¡Nunca te vimos!" insistirán. Pero Dios está en todas partes, haciéndose conocer en cada tiempo y lugar. Podemos verle, responderle — o podemos mirar hacia otro lado. ¿Cuál elegiremos?

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Why do Catholics Care About the Saints?
Real Presence
Question:
How do you explain "Real Presence" to children?
Answer:
The first Communion class is filled with excitement to the point of bursting! They are just awestruck by every new thing they learn about Jesus. Their enthusiasm is contagious as they rattle off the names of the things in church, the vessels and vestments used at Mass, and the names of their pastors and priests. Of course, they know Christ can do anything because he's God. He comes to us in holy Communion because he loves us so much that he wants to be with us. And he comes to us in the form of bread and wine. We really Receive him in the Eucharist.

Sometimes it is easier to explain this to children than to adults. Their faith and trust in Jesus is not limited by the questions and doubts that often come with the question of how he does it. Rather, they focus on the question "why," and the answer is something they can easily grasp: love. Christ wants to be with us because he loves us. Nothing is purer in truth or in faith. Not even the theological explanation of transubstantiation, or philosophical reasoning or symbolic references, come close. Christ takes on the form of bread and wine to be simple and approachable, so that no one is afraid or turned away. His love for us is complete and total. We try to love him the same way in return. For a child, it is simple. For us adults, we keep trying. "Unless you turn and become like children you will not enter the kingdom of heaven" (Mt 18:3).

¿POR QUÉ HACEMOS ESO? - VIDA CATÓLICA EXPLICADA

Presencia Real
Pregunta:
¿Cómo explicas "Presencia Real" a los niños?
Respuesta:
¡La clase de Primera Comunión está llena de emoción a punto de estallar! Simplemente están asombrados por cada cosa nueva que aprenden acerca de Jesús. Su entusiasmo es contagioso mientras recitan los nombres de las cosas en la iglesia, los vasos y las vestiduras que se usan en la Misa y los nombres de sus pastores y sacerdotes. Por supuesto, saben que Cristo puede hacer cualquier cosa porque es Dios. Viene a nosotros en la sagrada Comunión porque nos ama tanto que quiere estar con nosotros. Y viene a nosotros en la forma de pan y vino. Realmente lo recibimos en la Eucaristía. A veces es más fácil explicar esto a los niños que a los adultos. Su fe y confianza en Jesús no está limitada por las preguntas y dudas que a menudo vienen con la pregunta de cómo lo hace. Más bien, se enfocan en la pregunta "por qué," y la respuesta es algo que pueden entender fácilmente: amor. Cristo quiere estar con nosotros porque nos ama. Nada es más puro en la verdad o en la fe. Ni siquiera la explicación teológica de la transubstanciación ni el razonamiento filosófico o las referencias simbólicas se le acercan. Cristo toma la forma de pan y vino para ser sencillo y accesible, para que nadie tenga miedo o sea rechazado. Su amor por nosotros es completo y total. A cambio, tratamos de amarlo de la misma manera. Para un niño, es simple. Nosotros los adultos, seguimos intentándolo. "Si no os volvéis y os hacéis como niños, no entraréis en el reino de los cielos" (Mt 18:3)
