Reflections

My dear friends in Christ,

By the time you read this, our pilgrimage will have already brought us to the very footsteps of St. Paul!

During our first week, we were blessed to visit Thessaloniki, Philippi, and Delphi. At Philippi, we celebrated Mass together with fellow pilgrims from St. Joan of Arc Parish from our own diocese! It was a special moment of communion and shared faith. We also visited the site of Lydia's baptism—the first Christian convert of St. Paul in Europe.

The following day, we traveled to Vergina to visit the tomb of Philip II, the father of Alexander the Great—a fascinating connection to the broader historical context in which early Christianity began to spread.

Today, September 22, we begin the next leg of our journey: a 5-day cruise through the Greek Isles. Spirits are high, and the pilgrims are full of excitement as we set sail for Mykonos. Along the way, we will also visit the ancient cities of Ephesus and Patmos. Ephesus was a key location in St. Paul's missionary work, where he helped build one of the earliest Christian communities in Asia Minor. Patmos, as you know, is where St. John received the visions recorded in the Book of Revelation.

After the cruise, we will conclude our pilgrimage with a visit to Corinth, where St. Paul spent two years establishing a vibrant Christian community—one that would leave us with some of the most profound writings in the New Testament.

Given our focus on the footsteps of St. Paul, my reflection today turns to his beloved companion, St. Timothy. I write this reflection in high spirits, filled with inspiration from the places we have visited, and the rich insights shared by our knowledgeable tour guide.

In today's Second Reading, St. Paul addresses Timothy as a "man of God," reminding him—and all of us—of our Christian identity and calling. This title aligns Timothy with the great prophets and faithful servants throughout salvation history.

Paul urges Timothy to pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness—virtues that define the life of a true disciple and servant of Christ. He encourages him to "compete well for the faith," reminding us that faith is not passive but an active commitment, especially in a world marked by division, hatred, violence, and despair.

Like Timothy, we too must proclaim Christ—not just in words, but in the way we live our lives. St. Paul and St. Timothy are examples of courage and fidelity in the face of trials, suffering, and even persecution. Their witness challenges us to be bold, steadfast, and joyful in our own Christian journey.

Let us be faithful builders of the City of God, living our faith with conviction, compassion, and courage.

On a joyful note, our much-anticipated Oktoberfest (October 12) is fast approaching! I hope you are as excited as I am. Let us continue to be ONE in Christ, united in love and thanksgiving.

Thank you, as always, for being cheerful givers and generous supporters of our parish family.

I look forward to being with you as we celebrate the Feast of San Lorenzo Ruiz de Manila (actual feast: September 28) on Tuesday, September 30, at 5:00 PM.

With love and prayers from Greece,

In Christ,

Fr. Geoffrey

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The rich man had a chance, every day of his life, to choose righteousness. But righteousness wasn't convenient for him. He discovered too late that the only time we have to follow God is now. Here. This moment. Will we take our chance?

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

El hombre rico tuvo la oportunidad, todos los días de su vida, de elegir la justicia. Pero la justicia no le convenía. Descubrió demasiado tarde que el único momento en que tenemos que seguir a Dios es ahora. Aquí. En este momento. ¿Aprovecharemos nuestra oportunidad?

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Can Divorced Catholics Take Communion?

Question:

Can a divorced Catholic receive holy Communion?

Answer:

Unfortunately, too many people today — Catholics and non-Catholics alike — mistakenly believe that divorce separates one from the Communion of the Church and that divorced persons may not receive Communion. However, as the Church has communicated in a number of places, the issue at hand is not the reality of divorce, but is more often the reality of re-marriage outside of the Church (such as in the case of a Catholic who was previously married within the Church, divorced, and remarried without receiving an annulment). Divorced persons are called to live chastely as single people and to observe the same call to avoid sin as anyone else who desires to receive the Eucharist. Beyond this, however, Pope Francis has reminded us that the healing power of the Eucharist can be especially significant for those who have “endured separation, divorce, or abandonment ... divorced people who have not remarried, and often bear witness to marital fidelity, ought to be encouraged to find in the Eucharist the nourishment they need to sustain them in their present state of life.” (Amoris Laetitia, no. 242) Moreover, he continues, “The local community and pastors should accompany these people with solicitude, particularly when children are involved or when they are in serious financial difficulty.” (AL, no 242)

As Pope Francis has also reminded us, the Eucharist is “not a prize for the perfect,” but “a powerful medicine and nourishment” (Evangelii Gaudium, no. 47). Because we all stand in need of healing and wholeness, the Church invites all who seek to live their faith in integrity and devotion to come and receive the grace offered in the Eucharist.

¿POR QUÉ HACEMOS ESO? - VIDA CATÓLICA EXPLICADA

¿Oración diaria versus Misa?

Pregunta:

Tengo un amigo que dice que no necesita ir a misa porque le reza a Dios todos los días. ¿Qué piensa de esta justificación?

Respuesta:

Si la única razón para ir a la iglesia fuera hablar con Dios, tu amigo podría tener razón. La oración no es algo limitado a un lugar físico o incluso a un lugar santo. Si el único propósito de la Iglesia fuera la oración, sería un propósito ciertamente estrecho. La Iglesia es una comunidad de creyentes, formada por “un solo Señor, una sola fe, un solo Bautismo”. Es un signo externo de nuestra fe en Dios instituida por Cristo, y el propósito de la Iglesia es darnos la gracia, es decir, una participación en la vida de Dios.

Venir a Misa no es realmente para beneficio de Dios, sino para el nuestro. Si creemos que Jesús está verdaderamente presente en la sagrada Eucaristía, entonces queremos estar en su presencia. Querremos ser alimentados por él. Nuestra oración diaria y nuestras buenas obras se fortalecen con nuestro auténtico encuentro con nuestro Señor. Para los católicos, es en la Misa donde celebramos la fuente y la cumbre de nuestra fe. Si esto es cierto, ¿por qué nos mantendríamos alejados?
