Pastor's Message

My dear friends in Christ,

Last September, in our Diocese of Oakland, we gathered for the Eucharistic Congress! The idea behind this was to highlight the importance of the Eucharist. It was a very successful gathering of the faithful in our diocese. In our deanery, we continue to talk about it and how to respond to this wonderful Eucharistic revival!

This Saturday, January 27, 2024, the deanery was supposed to have a Kick-off Mass here at St. Joseph Church to begin a series of talks on the importance, meaning, and power of the Eucharist! Of course, we know that the Sunday gathering is the "high point and the summit of our Christian experience!"

I would like to share with you the meaning of the Eucharist and why the Sunday gathering is very important!

Body of Christ! Blood of Christ! We hear these life-giving words every time we come to the altar to receive the Eucharist. In the context of the Jewish Passover Feast, Jesus before he died, instituted the Eucharist. In Mark's account of the Last Supper, Jesus took bread, blessed, and broke it and said, "This is my body." And after the supper, he took a cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "This is my blood of the covenant which will be shed for many." This moment in our life commemorated the powerful intervention of God who led his people out of slavery. So, every time we gather around the table of the Lord, we gather what he asked his apostles to do, "Do this in remembrance of me!" Doing this we make the past event---- a present reality. His power and his love are made present.

From the earliest days of Christianity, Sunday has been a day set apart. This is the day when the disciples experienced the Risen Christ. It was on Sunday morning that Christ appeared to the disciples and they knew that was not the final chapter in Jesus' life. It was also through this Sunday experience that they came to understand that Jesus' death was not the end of their experience of God through Jesus. Sunday became the day when they would gather in great expectation to meet the Lord. This was the day when they gather in prayer and wait for His coming again in glory. An integral part of this gathering was the sharing of scripture and the breaking of the bread. As their understanding of the experience grew, they came to realize that it was in the gathering of the community, the sharing of the Word, and the breaking of the bread that the Risen Christ was indeed present to them.

Sunday continues to have this meaning for Catholics and (and other) Christians today. Through the same gathering, prayer, sharing of God's word, and remembering the mystery of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection in the breaking of the Bread we come to experience the Risen Christ. It is in this celebration that our lives are brought into the presence of God and are made whole. Through this celebration the community comes together and is healed, energized, remembered, and enlivened in the Spirit. When members of the community are missing, the celebration is lacking. It is not just that I need to go to Mass but rather that the community needs me to be at Mass so that it is complete, whole, and so that the Sunday celebration can be complete. The implications of this understanding are many. This implies that each one of us must not just "attend Mass" but that we must become part of a faith community, which means that not only does it matter where I go to Mass, but that it matters how I participate in the celebration as well.

It is sad to see that many Catholics take the Eucharist for granted. Many of us come to Mass late and leave early. Many of us talk to each other. Many of us would dress in a way we would not dress when we visit a friend. While lining up to receive the Eucharist, our eyes roam around instead of concentrating on the approaching moment when Christ comes into our hearts. The Church reminds that our participation should be "full and active."

As we continue in our journey of faith and life, let us remember that the Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ, is the living bread that came down from heaven that transforms us into his Body---called to give and share the life and love of Jesus the Christ. The gift of the Eucharist is a gift of love, broken and blessed by Jesus for us. God bless you all!

And thank you for your great generosity. You have been a "CHEERFUL GIVER!"

In Peace,
Fr. Geoffrey

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

With one swift command, Jesus freed a man from the possession of evil spirits. He has that same power to banish the shadow of sin from our own lives. Let's invite him into our hearts, asking him to cleanse the darkness he finds there.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Con una rápida orden, Jesús liberó a un hombre de la posesión de espíritus malignos. Él tiene ese mismo poder para desterrar la sombra del pecado de nuestras propias vidas. Invitémoslo a nuestro corazón, pidiéndole que limpie la oscuridad que allí encuentre.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Communion & Mortal Sin

Question:

I have a friend who receives communion, but who I know for a fact is in a state of mortal sin. Should I tell our priest? Is it my responsibility to say something?

Answer:

While we may always want to do what is best for our friends and family members, we have a responsibility to respect their privacy and their conscience. In its reflections on the Eighth Commandment (“You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor”), the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, “Respect for the reputation of persons forbids every attitude and word likely to cause them unjust injury. [One] becomes guilty: -of rash judgment who, even tacitly, assumes as true, without sufficient foundation, the moral fault of a neighbor; -of detraction who, without objectively valid reason, discloses another's faults and failings to persons who do not know them; of calumny who, by remarks contrary to the truth, harms the reputation of others and gives occasion for false judgments concerning them” (no. 2477).

We will never truly know what is in a person's mind, heart, and soul; only God knows those things. We should, of course, take our concerns to God and entrust the person about whom we are concerned to God's grace and mercy. If we have concerns about the spiritual wellbeing of someone with whom we are close, we should go to the person themselves and talk about our fears and concerns. Unless it is a case of abuse or endangerment (which we have a moral and even legal responsibility to report to the appropriate authorities), we ultimately do not have the freedom to share another's persons faults or sins, however good we think our intentions might be.

¿POR QUÉ HACEMOS ESO? - VIDA CATÓLICA EXPLICADA

La Comunión y el pecado mortal

Pregunta:

Tengo amigo que recibe la Comunión, pero yo sé por cierto está en pecado mortal. ¿Digo yo al sacerdote esta información? ¿Es la responsabilidad mía decir algo?

Respuesta:

Aunque queremos hacer lo que es mejor para nuestros amigos y familiares, tenemos una responsabilidad al respetar su privacidad y conciencia. Reflexionando sobre el octavo mandamiento (“No darás testimonio falso contra tu prójimo”), el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica expone, “El respeto de la reputación de las personas prohíbe toda actitud y toda palabra susceptibles de causarles un daño injusto. Uno se hace culpable: - de juicio temerario el que, incluso tácitamente, admite como verdadero, sin tener para ello fundamento suficiente, un defecto moral en el prójimo; - de maledicencia el que, sin razón objetivamente válida, manifiesta los defectos y las faltas de otros a personas que los ignoran; - de calumnia el que, mediante palabras contrarias a la verdad, daña la reputación de otros y da ocasión a juicios falsos respecto a ellos” (numero 2477). No sabemos nunca lo que hay en la mente, el corazón, y el alma de otra persona; solamente Dios sabe esas cosas. Claro, debemos llevar nuestras preocupaciones a Dios y encomendar a la persona de quien estamos preocupados a la gracia y misericordia de Dios. Si tenemos preocupaciones sobre el bienestar espiritual de una persona con quien estamos íntimos, debemos hablar directamente con él o ella sobre nuestras preocupaciones. A menos que se trate de un caso de abuso o peligro (que tenemos la responsabilidad moral e incluso legal de informar a las autoridades apropiadas), últimamente no tenemos la libertad de compartir las faltas o los pecados de otra persona, por buenas que creamos que nuestras intenciones puedan ser.

The families were most appreciative of the gifts as they were able to shop for needed holiday items. Thanks again to Alice Kong and the Aloha Kiss Arthur Kong Memorial Foundation for donating 300 warm handmade beanies which were distributed with the gifts. We are so appreciative of the St. Anne's #78 Young Ladies Grand Institute for adopting two families and providing them with a holiday meal as well as supporting all of the 65 Christmas families with their donations of Andes Mints, boxed cookies, and 71 Kohl's Care stuffed animal toys which were enclosed in the gift bags. If anyone is interested in joining the St. Vincent de Paul ministry, we welcome you to join us on the third Tuesday of each month as we meet at 6:30pm in the parish center. We provide food vouchers and utilities assistance to the needy neighbors residing in our parish boundaries. Our annual events include Bundle Sunday, the Friends of the Poor Walk, the Back to School Program, and the Christmas Program. We thank you for the donations that we receive from the quarterly 5th Sunday of the month second collection which support our ongoing service to those in need.
