With the month of December embracing both the Advent and Christmas seasons, I'd like to share with you my reflection from this year's St. Peter by-the-Lake 'Advent Devotional'.

The Church seasons of Advent and Christmas are times of great promise and fulfillment. We enter Advent longing once again for the coming of the Christ Child. We live this out in our worship each week with the lighting of the Advent Wreath, and hearing once again the stories of waiting and anticipation. Then on Christmas Eve, the colors change from purple to white and we experience the joy of the Christ Child through sacrament and song. Every year it's different. Every year it's thrilling.

FROM
RECTOR

Yet, in the midst of the anticipation and fulfillment, it is a good thing to pause and remember that not everyone may be feeling happy, contented, and blessed. The time between Thanksgiving and Christmas are, for many people, a time of pain, grief, anxiety and/or depression. In many instances it's because someone important is missing from the table. I have been feeling the weight of this myself this year. Since the onset of Covid, I've lost one person from my family each year. Since 2021 I've lost a brother, a sister, a sister-in-law, and a nephew. These were all faces that graced our family's table over the generations. They ranged in age from 45 to 84. I have precious memories of each one. And I know that there are folks in our congregation who suffer, sometimes in silence, as they grieve the absence of a loved one. Whether the loss was incurred this year, or in years past, the time doesn't matter. There is no expiration date on grief and loss.

It can be difficult to stand with those who are experiencing pain and grief when the culture around us expects everyone to be celebrating and festive. It's OK. Being with someone who is sad can be just as simple as sending a card of care and love in solidarity with the person that suffers. A text, e-mail, or phone call can be helpful as well. Pray for them. Words matter much less than presence. Just being with someone who has experienced the loss of a loved one lets that person know that they are not forgotten, that they are loved just as they are, sadness and all.

The days before the coming of Christ into the world were dark days. There was a longing for a new light to come and bring truth into a hurting world. God heard those cries, and Jesus was born to a Virgin named Mary in a small village called Bethlehem. The light was small at first, but it grew into a force that continues to change this world two thousand years later. The Kingdom of God is breaking into this tired old world each and every day. This Advent and Christmas, remember that you and I are partners with God in helping others to see this light. A light that can never be overcome by darkness. In the toughest of times, when we stand with our brothers and sisters who are hurting, we help to bring the light of Jesus.

Faithfully,

Father Ron

Music Notes

One of our beloved Christmas carols is not a Christmas carol at all. The song is so familiar to us, and its words are so well known that we probably haven't noticed that the song does not include a single detail from the story of Jesus' birth: no stable, no shepherds, no wise men; no Mary or Joseph; no little town of Bethlehem or choirs of angels or silent nights.

When Isaac Watts wrote "Joy to the World," he was reflecting on Psalm 98 as part of his hymn series The Psalms of David Imitated. Watts wrote this series for his congregational church in London, which sang only the text of the Psalms in their worship services.

When Watts came to the second half of Psalm 98, he read the following words:

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth:

make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise ...

With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the Lord, the King.

Let the sea roar, and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together

Before the Lord; for he cometh to judge the earth:

with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

After absorbing this image of the whole earth bursting into song because the Lord comes to judge the earth, Watts wrote the four verses of "Joy to the World," inspired by Psalm 98 with his own words:

*Joy to the world, the Lord is come,
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare Him room,
And Heaven and nature sing...*

*Joy to the world, the Savior reigns!
Let all their songs employ,
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains
Repeat the sounding joy...*

*He rules the world with truth
and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness
And wonders of his love.*

Watts gave this hymn the heading “The Messiah’s Coming and Kingdom,” capping off what could be considered the perfect hymn for the Advent season. During Advent we anticipate the second coming of Christ and the “life of the world to come,” before remembering and celebrating his first coming in the Incarnation at Christmas.

The lyrics of “Joy to the World” remind us. Jesus will reverse the curse that was placed upon creation at the Fall, and sin and sorrow will cease; thorns will no longer infest the ground; and his blessings will flow “far as the curse is found.” Christ will free all of creation from its bondage, and in response, every part of creation will burst into a song of joy at his advent.

The word of hope during Advent is that we know the end of the story; our King will bring a final and lasting justice and joy to our world. As you sing “Joy to the World” during Advent; and may its words remind you that one day Jesus will rule the world with truth and grace and make known the wonders of his great love for us.

Blessings, David

Deck the Halls of December

November was a tranquil yet enjoyable month. We produced another installment of the Father Ron Files for encouragement and insight. The EYC learned to bake Eucharist bread with the bread guild, and we hosted a Fellowship Social Circle during our Craft-A-Thon. As the fall season has been so peaceful, we are eager to embrace the upcoming season filled with joy, laughter, and the true spirit of Christmas.

CF EVENTS AND FELLOWSHIP SOCIAL CIRCLE EVENTS!

Advent Festival

Our annual Advent Festival is set for December 7th, from 5:00 PM to 7:30 PM. This year, we invite you to experience “A Night in Bethlehem,” where we will explore the “little town” that witnessed the birth of our Savior and transformed the world!

As we journey back in time, you'll have the chance to meet St. Nicholas and celebrate modern traditions—all in one evening!

We warmly welcome everyone to visit our “little towns” and encourage you to bring someone new to share in a night filled with fun, crafts, food, and festive spirit!

With this event and any other event the CF puts on it is going to need the help from the amazing parish. Look for a sign up sheet in Fotinos for directions and how YOU can get involved in this magical night celebrating a time of wonder and hope!

Whimsical Christmas Tea Party

Did you miss our Summer Tea Party? No need to worry!

Join us on December 19th starting at 5pm in Fotinos Hall for an evening of tea, snacks, and painting. This Fellowship Circle is a social event open to everyone—men, women, children, and youth alike!

WHAT IS KINGDOM KIDS?

You may wonder, What's Kingdom Kids? I'm delighted to share! Kingdom Kids is an engaging time during the service for children in grades K-5, where they head downstairs for Sunday school, enjoying fun activities while learning about God's love and how to love like Him. Kingdom Kids takes place on Sundays during our 10:30 AM service. Additionally, we offer nursery care in our Small Blessings room for infants to 4-year-olds

SEEKING PASSIONATE INDIVIDUALS TO SUPPORT OUR PARISH

Do you enjoy working with children? Do you have a flair for decorating or a creative idea that could benefit our community and St. Peters? If you have some free time, then you might be just the person I'm looking for!

I aspire for our parish to grow not only spiritually but also physically, and I genuinely can't do it alone. I need assistance with:

- Teaching our kids
- Planning and executing events
- Building a team that cherishes their church, parish, and community

I am searching for passionate individuals—fishermen and disciples—to help expand God's family. If you're interested in any or all of these opportunities, please sign up in Fotinos Hall. I assure you, I will never overwork or overwhelm you.

Fisher of Men

CENTERING PRAYER

10AM on Wednesdays in the Parlor. We hope you will join in to pray together this "Prayer of the Heart".

SUNDAY WORSHIP AT ST. PETER BY-THE-LAKE

8:30AM Holy Eucharist

10:30AM Holy Eucharist

7:00 pm – Meeting called to order

Vestry Members Present: Tracey Engel, Jessica Gustis, Stephanie Heil, Pat Higbie, Gary Jarvis, Connie Mathis, Bill Reid, Mary Sansbury, Pamela Weed

Clergy Present: Father Ron Taylor

Other Members Present: Jim Heil, Daphne Wagner

Opening Prayer: Father Ron Taylor

- I. Call to Order & Opening Prayer/Devotion – done by Father Ron
- II. Vestry Check-in:
 - a. Father Ron said that the Valle Crucis retreat was a huge success. It was full and there were 12-15 first-time attendees. There was also a diverse age group. The dates for the 2026 retreat are scheduled for 10/9-10/11/26 so mark your calendars!
 - b. Father Ron also provided updates on several pastoral concerns.
- III. Discussion/Decision:
 - a. September minutes approved with no changes.
 - b. Jim went over the September financials:
 - i. The month of September ended with a net positive amount of $8,149. It was a great September. The main reason is because the revenue received was higher than expected in September even though the expenses were a little more than what was budgeted for the month.
 - The added expenses this month were due to increased salaries due to the audit and to ensure adequate staff coverage.
 - ii. Year-to-date is also at $3,912 net positive.
 - c. First look at 2026 budget: Jim will present in next month's vestry meeting a budget for 2026 so it will be a longer meeting.
 - d. Reports from Jr. and Sr. Wardens:
 - i. Jessica: Nothing to report other than stating that Valle Crucis was great this year and she loved seeing all of the new people there. Also, the food was much better than in previous years.

ii. Stephanie:

1. Pamela reported that the water in the sacristy has sentiment in it and is yellow. Stephanie called to get it checked out. Until it is fixed, using bottled water.
2. HVAC: Stephanie will call Integrity this week to get an estimate to fix the unit that covers Fotino's Hall and the offices. Also, the Furr Hall unit makes a lot of noise (it may be the belt) so Stephanie will ask them to look at that unit as well.

iii. Fire Pit is complete! Evan completed it and it looks great. Jessica will check with Stephen to make sure they received the donations needed to cover the cost. Father Ron said we will bless it in a future 10:30am service.

iv. Bill Reid contacted the tree guy who will come out to cut the trees behind the playground and by the prayer path. It will be a two-day job (two Friday's in the future).

e. Escape Windows & Video Streaming updates:

- i. Bill Reid contacted the window installer and the windows have been ordered and should be installed in early November. Father Ron explained that everything needs to be done by February for pre-school. Bill will continue to follow up with the installation company.
- ii. The video-streaming issues continue. Bill contacted a vendor to try swap out the connector and the new one has been shipped out. Bill will also contact AT&T to have them check the connections to make sure there are no issues there. Until it is fixed, we will continue to record and upload the 10:30am services.

- f. 2026 Vestry Interest: Father Ron said there will be the normal three openings for 2026. Pamela, Bill, and Jessica will be rolling off. Any vestry candidate must be a baptized and confirmed adult member.
- g. Associate Priest update: Father Ron spoke to the bishop when he was with him at the Clergy Conference in Lake Logan. Looking for a part time priest for about 10 hours a week.
- h. Upcoming events/schedules:
 - i. 10/21: The first session of Supper and the Word – 33 people signed up.
 - ii. 10/25: 2nd annual Fall Festival scheduled on the church grounds at 2pm.
 - iii. 10/26: 2nd Youth confirmation class – 6 kids are enrolled.
 - iv. 10/26: EYC 5-7pm
 - v. 11/2: All Saints Sunday
 - vi. 11/13: Altar Guild dinner (Pamela Weed will send an email).
 - vii. 2/1/26: Bishop Jose is scheduled to visit for confirmation.

IV. Other Matters:

- a. Pat Higbie asked about cleaning the Memorial Garden stones. Father Ron will talk to the Bowden's about it since they are the custodians of the garden.
- b. Pat Higbie will also be willing to donate an extra vacuum, so we have another one at the church. She will make sure it runs okay and, if it does, will bring it to church.
- c. Pat Higbie also offered to pay to have the walkway behind Fotino's Hall pressure washed. She will reach out to the power-washer she has used before.

V. Closing Prayer done by Father Ron

Next Vestry Meeting will be on 11/24 at 7pm because Father Ron is travelling the weekend before and is not sure if he will be back in town on 11/17.

FOCUS ON MISSION - OUTREACH TEAM

*And do not neglect doing good and sharing;
for with such sacrifices God is pleased. Hebrews 13:16*

A monthly highlight of organizations we support with our Time, Talent & Treasure.

Hello from your Mission Outreach team! This month we have two organizations to highlight.

Episcopal Relief and Development

ERD is familiar to many as St. Peter's has participated in the ERD (Episcopal Relief & Development) Year-End Match initiative every year with monies collected during the Christmas service. For those not familiar with ERD, it is an organization whose mission is to answer the call for help globally and be "... the compassionate response of The Episcopal Church to human suffering in the world. Hearing God's call to seek and serve Christ in all persons and to respect the dignity of every human being, Episcopal Relief & Development serves to bring together the generosity of Episcopalians and others with the needs of the world."

(source: <https://www.episcopalrelief.org/>)

FIVE TALENTS

The second is Five Talents, an organization that Bill Baker served as the church's sponsor for many years. Libby Motto has assumed this role and stays up to date on its efforts to help people throughout the world. In their own words, Five Talents' mission is "transforming lives through economic empowerment... [it] provides training for those living in some of the world's lowest income countries to start their own small businesses." Historically, Five Talents has supported international partners in over 20 countries in high-risk, underserved communities where most residents lack access to traditional loans or other banking services. Currently Five Talents is focused on supporting small business owners in Bolivia, Burundi, Kenya, Myanmar, Rwanda, South Sudan, Tanzania, and Uganda with the goal of self-sustainment.

As always, we invite the opportunity to add other local, national, and international 501(c)3's and other types of charitable initiatives of interest to any of our parishioners.

You can find hard copies of SPBTL Support Applications in the Mission Outreach mailbox in Fotinos Hall, or you may drop a note in the boxes of Libby Motto or Josette Anzalone and we will reach out to you to see how Mission Outreach may help an organization that you support.

THE STEWARDSHIP CORNER

As we approach the end of another calendar year, it's a wonderful time to pause and reflect on the past eleven months. Look back on your "gifts" of time, talent, and treasure—how you used them, how they blessed others, and how they enriched your own faith journey.

Did you help Ginia with one of the many fun events she organized for St. Peter by-the-Lake this year? Maybe you volunteered to teach Sunday School, pack backpacks, visit someone who was sick, or offer a ride to a fellow church member who no longer drives. Perhaps your talents were shared through a prayer shawl lovingly made, a voice lifted in the choir, or hands tending the beautiful flower beds and gardens on our campus. And what about your "gifts" of treasure? Did you fill out and fulfill your 2025 pledge card, help purchase the Boston Grand Piano, or support one of the many ministries here at SPBTL?

Big or small, your gifts are ALL deeply appreciated. Each one is part of what makes this church such a special place to belong throughout the year. St. Peter's is welcoming, active in our community, and continually expanding its outreach ministries—something to be truly proud of. So from all of us on the Stewardship Committee: THANK YOU for doing your part to make SPBTL a wonderful environment to raise children, build friendships, and grow in relationship with God.

Did time get away from you this year? Guess what—there's still time to jump in!

Join us at the Advent Festival on December 7th from 5:00–7:30 PM, or lend a hand at the Hanging of the Greens on December 13th at 1:00 PM. And of course, we hope you'll join us for the most joyful celebration of the season: the Christmas Eve services at 4:00 PM and 11:00 PM, as we welcome the birth of baby Jesus.

Blessings for a magical Advent and Christmas!
