

Drenda Keesee is a pastor, national speaker, television host, an author, and a bold leader in the body of Christ who has dedicated her life to equipping believers to live with courage, conviction, and Kingdom purpose. As co-founder and co-pastor of Faith Life Church in Ohio and Faith Life Now Ministries, which reaches millions of people across the globe through TV shows, radio, worldwide conferences, online platforms, books, and teachings, she has spent decades teaching biblical truth with clarity and practical application, helping thousands of individuals and families build strong foundations of faith.

Known for her uncompromising voice and compassionate leadership, Drenda ministers nationally through conferences, media, and television. She is the host of Drenda on the Daystar Television Network and the founder of Drenda on Guard on YouTube, where she addresses cultural issues from a biblical worldview and mobilizes believers to stand firm in truth. Her ministry emphasizes spiritual authority, identity in Christ, strong families, and courageous leadership in every sphere of influence.

As an accomplished author, Drenda has written books that challenge readers to break free from fear, discover their God-given assignments, and lead with confidence. Her teaching combines scriptural depth with real-world wisdom, empowering the next generation to rise up and make a lasting impact.

In addition to her pastoral and national leadership roles, Drenda serves as a Knox County Commissioner, in Ohio, bringing principled, faith-informed leadership to public service.

Whether in the pulpit, on television, in the public square, or mentoring emerging leaders, her mission remains the same: to champion truth, strengthen families, and equip believers to influence the culture for Christ.
