ANNOUNCEMENTS

There is a covered dish meal today after the morning worship service. You are invited to stay for lunch and fellowship with your church family.

Next Sunday, February 23, a special offering will be taken to replace the money in the building fund that was used for the new boiler, which cost $13,500. Please be in prayer regarding your contribution to this special offering.

For those who wish to watch the Sunday morning service before it is put on the church website, there are instructions on how to find the YouTube video in the rear of the sanctuary.

For the month of February, we are collecting canned food items to donate to a mission effort. Please bring your canned food items to add to the collection boxes.

In the event of inclement weather on a Sunday morning, you may listen to radio stations WDAC and WJTL for closing announcements. You should also be receiving a call from your assigned deacon regarding the closing.
