Adopted into a new family

- Loved by our Trinitarian family
- Living in loving obedience
- Led by the Holy Spirit

When we live as orphans in a spiritual sense, how do we feel in an everyday sense? How do we live as we fend for ourselves?

How do obedience and love go together? How does the philosophically romantic view of love differ from this kind of loyalty and love that we have in Christ?

What does the phrase “another Helper” tell us about Jesus and the Holy Spirit?

How does this passage describe the Holy Spirit?

Verse 27 offers us Peace! How does this passage make this “peace” real in our lives? What is your experience of Peace?
