This upcoming week is a special week for the Church and for our parish community. This weekend we have the opportunity to celebrate the Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time. On Monday, the Church celebrates the Presentation of the Lord (also known as Candlemas). On Tuesday, the Church celebrates the Feast of St. Blasé, Bishop and Martyr. Then on Saturday, our parish and St. Gabriel's parish are collaborating to share in our Pre-Lent Retreat.

We hear Matthew share the Beatitudes on this fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time. We have heard the Beatitudes proclaimed at Mass on countless occasions. Many people mistakenly believe that the Beatitudes are a set of eight rules that we should follow and, if we follow them, we will go to heaven. And, if we don't follow them, we'll probably go someplace else. This is a mistake. When Jesus teaches the Beatitudes, He is not establishing a new set of rules to follow. Rather, He is telling us, this is how we are to live and what we truly are called to be. Jesus is letting us know that by following the Beatitudes we are able to attain true happiness and share in the greatness of God's love.

Like Moses, Jesus goes up the mountain and comes back down with the Beatitudes, which are not commandments, but a way to live. By following and living the Beatitudes the whole world will radically change over time. Jesus is telling us, in the Beatitudes, how He and the Father love us. The Beatitudes are the reasons why they love us so deeply. They love us because these eight simple suggestions give us the guidance and the way of living for which we were created and by which He and the Father live and love.

Monday marks the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, which is also known as the Feast of the Encounter or Candlemas. This is the feast in which Mary and Joseph bring the infant Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem for the first time and for an encounter with Simeon and Anna.

Luke tells us on four separate occasions that Mary and Joseph wanted to do what was required by the Law of the Lord. Reading Luke's Gospel, we get the sense that Jesus' earthly parents have the joy of observing the Law of the Lord! They are a couple that just had their baby, and are motivated to do what is prescribed by the Law. This is a strong desire that is full of joy.

This Feast marks the encounter between the Holy Family and Simeon and Anna, the two representatives of God's holy people who are filled with joy and the Holy Spirit. Jesus is at the center of this encounter. Jesus' mere presence drew Simeon and Anna to the Temple that day. It is He who moves everything, who draws all of them and all of us to the house of His Father.

Tuesday marks the Feast of St. Blasé, Bishop and Martyr. We know that Jesus took pity on all the people who came from near and far to see and hear Him. He said they were, "like sheep without a shepherd." He responded by proclaiming the Word of God and curing their illnesses. As Jesus cured them physically, they also believed that He could also cure them spiritually. This is the faith-perspective we need to understand St. Blasé and the custom of having our throats blessed through his intercession.

St. Blasé was a shepherd after the heart of Christ. Later, he trained to be a physician of the body as well as a physician of souls for the people to which he ministered in the Diocese of Sebastea in Armenia. Just as many people went into the desert to be with Jesus, so too many people flocked to hear St. Blasé preach and be cured of their bodily and spiritual infirmities. Among those he cured was a young man on his way to prison who was choking on a fish bone (this cure is just one of many that St. Blasé performed). Like Jesus, St. Blasé often withdrew to pray. But St. Blasé most resembled Jesus by his death as a martyr. St. Blasé died a particularly cruel death. So, in all these ways, St. Blasé followed Jesus' ministry – first for his own people and second, because of the communion of saints, his ministry is also extended to us. In honor of St. Blasé, and his curing of the young man choking on a fish bone, we will bless all throats, at the conclusion of all Masses this weekend.

A noted theologian once said that the Church is Jesus extended in space and time. Indeed, the Church herself is the Sacrament of our Encounter with Christ. The community of the Church, filled with the Holy Spirit, is the visible sign by which and through which Jesus continues to minister to His people. The Church is not merely a group of like-minded people who reflect on what Jesus did in the past. It is not merely a group of people who agree on moral or social issues. Rather, the Church, in spite of the sinfulness of its leaders and members, is both the sign and the source of Jesus' presence and power still active in our midst. We, the Church and the Body of Christ are called to share in Jesus' ministry throughout the world today. So it is, that when a person is baptized, it is really Christ who baptizes. When the Word of God is proclaimed at Mass, it is really Jesus who proclaims it to us. When the Eucharist is celebrated, Jesus' presence and saving death are extended to us. When the candles touch us today in the blessing, it is the touch of Jesus, who is our light, our salvation, our divine physician.

On February 7th, we will work in collaboration with St. Gabriel's by hosting our annual Pre-Lenten Retreat, in which first year participants will encounter Christ and second year participants will partake in the process of continuing conversion. This will be a very spiritual and special way to prepare for Lent.

Through the guidance of the Beatitudes may we find true happiness, by reflecting on the encounter of Jesus at His Presentation in the Temple may we experience the joy of His presence, and through reflecting on St. Blasé, who followed the life of ministry that Jesus laid out for him, may we also be drawn to follow Jesus' example. May we who seek to follow the Beatitudes and encounter Jesus, like Simeon and Anna, enter the grace of this mystery, the mystery of the Encounter, be enlightened and find comfort on our journey. Faithfully, Dr. George

WHY WE WALK

Noah was just six months old when our family noticed unusual movements that led to urgent medical care and a diagnosis of Tuberous Sclerosis Complex (TSC). TSC is a rare genetic condition affecting 1 in 6,000 children and can cause seizures, developmental delays, and lifelong medical challenges. Through this walk, we raise awareness, fund research, and support families navigating life with TSC.

Mindful Presence

Please enter the church in the spirit of reverence in silence for our Eucharistic Lord. Remember to be mindful and respectful of others who have come to Mass and are taking the time to pray and prepare for the celebration of the Mass. If you need to speak with another person, please whisper or step out in the hallway to talk, so as not to disturb others who are trying to pray. Finally, we ask you to please silence your cell phones before the start of Mass. Following these simple habits will help to enhance our time spent at Mass in the presence of the Lord.

From the Catholic Commission....February 8th is the Feast of St. Josephine Bakhita, the patron of victims of human trafficking. According to the Dept. of Homeland Security, 24,000 of our sisters and brothers fell victim to trafficking in the USA in 2024 (FY 2024 report), and the global incidence of trafficking continues to rise. Catholic Social Teaching proclaims the inherent dignity of all people, and the evil of trafficking flies in the face of this fundamental principle.
