Points of Reflection

- The king in Jesus' parable is quite persistent. He sends his servants out to invite the same guests a second time to his son's wedding feast. In fact, it is possible that some of those who declined his invitation twice were invited a third time when the servants simply invited everyone they found in the streets. Indeed, they may have invited those who had earlier mistreated the servants, as "bad and good alike" were welcomed as guests (Matthew 22:10). God continues to invite to the Son's feast those who initially or repeatedly refuse, even those who respond inappropriately. We ourselves may have needed multiple invitations. We still may.
- However, after the king throws out a guest who is not wearing a wedding garment, Jesus points out that "Many are invited, but few are chosen" (22:14). The wedding garment may be seen as the act of repentance, which enables the guest's heart to be ready and worthy of both the eucharistic feast and the kingdom of heaven, which is what Jesus says the parable is all about. This wedding garment may be challenging to don, but it is available to anyone and everyone. With our repentance and God's forgiveness, we can be welcomed to the heavenly banquet.
- In the second reading, Paul tells the Philippians that God will supply anything they need. We may come to the feast unprepared and lacking a "wedding garment," but that does not mean that we are doomed to be thrown out into the darkness. No, God, "to whom we looked to save us" (Isaiah 25:9), will supply the wedding garment that will save us: mercy, forgiveness, redemption. Clothed in God's love, we will be properly prepared to enter the kingdom of heaven.

Questions of the Week

- What will I do this week to weave a wedding garment of repentance, mercy, and love for the Lord's feast? What do I need to repent of? Who needs my mercy? How can I show love?

STEWARDSHIP QUOTES:

- Giving and sharing are learned responses. It is our responsibility to teach our young people this lesson. Stewardship is opening our hearts, schedules and hand to others – being available and willing to listen and give our time and our love. Those we give to can be our neighbors, fellow parishioners, as well as those who are hurting.
- "Tell them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, ready to share" (1 Timothy 6:18)

Legacy Sunday — Beginning Your Legacy Journey

"Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."
— Matthew 6:21

How is Legacy Sunday different from the other times the Church asks parishioners for donations?

Unlike an Annual Appeal or Capital Campaign or a regular parish collection, Legacy Sunday is not to "ask and give now." Legacy Sunday encourages parishioners to plan for their own legacy and consider future gifts through their estate plans.

Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal

If you're still considering making a donation, it's not too late.

To participate and make your gift:

- Complete a pledge form. (Available at the church entrance or parish office).
- It can be a one-time or a recurring gift
- Or you can scan the QR Code here >
- Or visit the web: Appeal.CatholicHawaii.org.

Be sure that your gift is designated to Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish in Ewa Beach. Your donation supports the vital ministries of our Church across our Islands. Thank you for your prayerful support and generosity!

October is Respect Life Month

Walking with Moms in Need

Walking with Moms in Need is a parish initiative inspired by Archbishop Naumann in 2020 to offer hope, support and practical care to mothers through the love of Christ. The baby showers welcome all mothers, expectant mothers and parenting mothers and their families. The church is not a pregnancy center but does provide various resources in the communities that are available for them. Priests, deacons and lay ministers are here to provide spiritual guidance and support throughout their journey. Hawaii began this program on September 8, 2022, The Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Over 8 parishes have supported this program with yearly baby showers. Please join St. Stephen Catholic Church in Nuuanu for their first Baby Shower on October 25 at 11:30 a.m.
