POINTS FOR REFLECTION

- “Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me?” Jesus asks Philip in today’s Gospel (John 14:9). The same could be asked of us today. Jesus has been with us since we were baptized. He had only been with his disciples for three years; he’s accompanied us for much longer. Do we still not know him? We have written eyewitness testimony about him. We have two thousand years of writings about him, from Saint Paul’s letters to books and essays from contemporary theologians and spiritual writers. We have our own personal experiences through prayer. Jesus assures us that to know the Son is to know the Father. Twenty centuries later, we still have every opportunity to know God.
- As the early church grew and grew, especially when Saint Paul or one of the Twelve came to preach, with hundreds of people being baptized every day, more ministers were needed to serve the church’s many members. In the first reading today, it is the needy among the Hellenists—who most likely were Palestinian Jews and other Jews from the diaspora who spoke Greek, the more common language at the time, and not Hebrew or Aramaic—who are being overlooked. Clearly, the Twelve did not want this to continue. But there were only so many of them and they needed to remain dedicated to preaching and teaching the word of God. So they appointed seven disciples (seven symbolizing universality) to take on the task of serving those with material needs. These seven—all with Greek names—are considered the Church’s first deacons (from the Greek diakonos meaning servant).
- The building we enter to celebrate the Eucharist may be made in part with physical stones, but Peter points out in our second reading today that the Church is made of a different kind of stone: living stones. Along with all other baptized Christians, we make a living spiritual home in which God may dwell. Just as we would prepare our own physical home for guests, we pray that God help us prepare our spiritual home so that we may be “a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own” so that our lives may be lived in praise of God (1 Peter 2:9).

Question of the Week

What can I do this week to know Jesus better, to serve those who are overlooked, and to prepare my spiritual home?

STEWARDSHIP QUOTES:

- * Jesus asks us to commit ourselves to be good stewards of the gifts entrusted to us, to share our time, our talent, and our treasure as an outward sign of the love and gratitude we have for Him.
- * “Thus should one regard us: as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Now it is of course required of stewards that they be found trustworthy.” (1 Corinthians 4:1-2)

Congratulations and Welcome!

Please welcome Princess Calaro, Rebecca Mitchell, and Timothy Mitchell who were received into Full Communion with the Catholic Church. They have a valid baptism from a non-Catholic Church, which means the minister used water and the Trinitarian formula at their baptism.

They also received the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist (First Holy Communion) last Sunday, April 26, at 5:00 p.m. Mass. Congratulations, Princess, Rebecca, and Tim.

In response to the historic flooding caused by the recent Kona low storm system, which brought unprecedented rainfall across our islands, many within our parish and school communities have been affected. This fund has been established to support recovery efforts across the Roman Catholic Church in the State of Hawaii as needs continue to unfold. Your gift will help provide assistance to our parishes and schools where it is most needed during this time of recovery.

SACRAMENTS INITIATIVE

Praise God! The Holy Spirit is at work in bringing families to the Lord through the sacraments especially Baptism and First Communion. There are a good number of parishioners coming forward to receive the sacraments. Come and see us at our information table after each Mass. God's blessings to all.

Ask our catechists before or after each Mass if you, your family, or anyone you know would like information on the sacraments or register for any class as follows:

- * Baptism at any age, from infant to adults. Infant baptism is for children under seven years of age.
- * Full initiation sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and First Holy Communion for ages seven to adults
- * Confirmation only for those who have received Baptism and First Communion for adults
- * Confirmation and First Holy Communion for adults with Catholic baptism.
- * Reception into full communion of the Catholic Church, ages seven and up and with valid Baptism from a non-Catholic denomination
- * Religious education classes from Pre-K to high school
- * Matrimony – Catholic wedding either for the first time or marriage validation which means they were married civilly.

We thank those who have come to our Information Table to ask about Baptism, First Communion, Confirmation, and yes, Matrimony. Several families have taken registration forms for the next Religious Education classes which will start on August 9. May God bless us all and may we all continue to respond to the promptings of the Holy Spirit inviting us to start or deepen our relationship with the Lord.

MASTER PLAN UPDATE

As the Diocese continues the financial system conversions there are the gradual report updates received by the Parish. Progress continues albeit with several rain event interruptions. We are currently preparing for 5 separate Slab on Grade (SOG) Pours with control joints/saw cuts to prevent the floors from cracking. Concrete will then be ground & polished to show some of the aggregate. The Sanctuary, Baptismal Font, and possibly the center aisle will have a Mapei floor coating applied over the concrete.

Glu Lam Beam sanding & staining has commenced with roof sheathing, roofing and fireproofing to follow. Simultaneously fire sprinklers, HVAC ducting & RTU AC curbs are being installed. This will be followed by the rough-in of lighting, audio visual speakers, and cameras.

This will be followed by DensGlass/Flashings around the metal stud light gauge framing for the windows and the completions of the data com, electrical, and unisex restrooms. Pews, celebrant chairs, prie dieu, podium, and ambry is scheduled to arrive and installed in the July-August time frame. Interior work will take place over the next few months following that.
