Points of Reflection

- Matthew's Gospel is structured around five lengthy discourses from Jesus. The first of these is the Sermon on the Mount, and the passage we hear today is the very beginning. This suggests that when Jesus wants to address his disciples and the crowds he drew, he begins by telling them the Beatitudes. To the many who were undoubtedly poor in spirit, he assured them that the kingdom of heaven was theirs. To his disciples, whom he would one day commission to minister to those in mourning, he taught them to comfort them as God does. To them all, he described the glory of heaven, when the hunger and poverty and persecution in this world would be overcome. It is after this first sermon that people began to marvel at how Jesus taught with such authority.
- Jesus was able to teach about heaven with such authority because he came down from heaven in the first place. Thus, he could promise the rewards of heaven for those whom he had come to serve. We believe that those who we identify as saints are part of the kingdom of heaven right now, forever in the presence of God, surrounded by love, mercy, and goodness. We may make our prayers through the intercession of the saints, trusting that they are with God, who stands ready to shower us with that love, mercy, and goodness.
- In today's second reading, John writes that, "we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is" (1 John 3:2). Later in this letter, he writes "God is love, and whoever remains in love remains in God and God in him" (1 John 4:16). Since we regard the saints as dwelling in the kingdom of God in the presence of God, able to see God face to face, John would say that the saints are like God. Because God is love, the saints are as well. Indeed, with their lives the saints have given us real-world examples of God's love. When we pray through the intercession of a saint, we are not only recognizing the unconditional love of God they manifested here on earth, but also the pure love that permeates their entire being in heaven.

Question of the Week

- How can I show the unconditional love of a saint in a way that I have been reluctant to in the past?

STEWARDSHIP QUOTES:

- As we practice stewardship, we find that we grow spiritually and that our faith is deepened.
- "Give to the Most High as He has given to you, generously, according to your means." (Sirach 35:12)

Legacy Sunday --- Beginning Your Legacy Journey

"Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."
--- Matthew 6:21

How is Legacy Sunday different from the other times the Church asks parishioners for donations?

Unlike an Annual Appeal or Capital Campaign or a regular parish collection, Legacy Sunday is not to "ask and give now." Legacy Sunday encourages parishioners to plan for their own legacy and consider future gifts through their estate plans.

Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal

If you're still considering making a donation, it's not too late.
To participate and make your gift:

- Complete a pledge form. (Available at the church entrance or parish office). It can be a one-time or a recurring gift

Be sure that your gift is designated to Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish in Ewa Beach. Your donation supports the vital ministries of our Church across our Islands. Thank you for your prayerful support and generosity!
