Points of Reflection

- Jesus would have been familiar with Isaiah's parable about the vineyard gone bad. He would have also expected that the chief priests and elders he was addressing were familiar with it as well. In that light, they would have all realized that not too many years after Isaiah spoke his words, the house of Israel and the kingdom of Judah fell to the invading Babylonians. The king was captured, his sons were executed, the temple was destroyed, and most of the Jewish people were exiled. Six centuries later, Jesus begins his parable with an almost identical description of a vineyard, then speaks of servants being mistreated and killed. In Isaiah's parable, the vineyard—the kingdom on earth—is destroyed. However, Jesus' vineyard—the kingdom of God—is given to those who will tend it responsibly and produce its fruit.
- We are neither the owner nor the builder of the vineyard. We are the tenants, tending to the vineyard so that the vines will produce good fruit. Recall that elsewhere Jesus called himself the vine and his disciples the branches. He told them to remain in him and the vine would bear much fruit. We remain in Christ when we make him the cornerstone of our lives. When we make him our cornerstone, we willingly pursue and exercise the virtues Saint Paul lists in the second reading: truth, honor, justice, purity, love, and graciousness. In doing so, we produce the good fruit of the kingdom of God.
- It can be quite difficult to handle an unplanned pregnancy or to care for an elderly family member who needs round-the-clock attention. Those who are at vulnerable stages of life may be ignored by authorities, by people unwilling to make that kind of sacrifice, and by legislators who make it easier for them to be rejected or discarded. At times like this, it is especially important to heed Paul's virtues and do what is honorable, what is gracious, and what is worthy of praise.

Question of the Week

When have I failed to do what is honorable and praiseworthy? What challenges have I overcome in cases where I did what was honorable and praiseworthy?

Legacy Sunday --- Beginning Your Legacy Journey

"Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."
— Matthew 6:21

How is Legacy Sunday different from the other times the Church asks parishioners for donations?

Unlike an Annual Appeal or Capital Campaign or a regular parish collection, Legacy Sunday is not to "ask and give now." Legacy Sunday encourages parishioners to plan for their own legacy and consider future gifts through their estate plans.

Is there a deadline or minimum gift amount?

No. Legacy Sunday begins an ongoing conversion. Parishioners can create or update their estate plans whenever they are ready. Every legacy gift, regardless of size, can make a meaningful difference.

What is an estate?

An estate includes everything a person owns at their time of death, including homes, bank accounts, retirement accounts, investments, life insurance, vehicles, and personal belongings.

OLPH Commemorative Book 2026

To mark the completion of our new church building and celebrate its dedication, a commemorative book highlighting the life and history of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish in Ewa Beach is being made. We invite everyone to be part of the book. There are four ways you and your family can participate in this beautiful keepsake.

1. Family Photos. We are already one month into the picture taking for our Commemorative Book. Please sign up for an appointment to have your family take a family portrait because space is limited. There is a $15 fee for which you will receive a copy of the portrait to take home and an electronic copy will be sent to you so you can print more copies. Your portrait will then become part of the Parishioner's section in the book. Only those who take their photos with our photographer will be put in the book. If you wish to have your pictures taken the soonest or taken on a week day, please call the Parish office at 808-689-8681 to make your appointment. On the day and time of your appointment, bring your family to the church (former Blessed Sacrament chapel at the back of the church), and your portrait will be taken.

2. Book sales. The sales of the book are by pre-order only. If you wish to pre-order the book, see us after Mass under the tent outside. The cost of the book is just $35.00. Make checks out to Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church or you may pay with Cash or Card.

3. Personal Message or Business Ads: This option is now sold out as of 17 August 2026. However, there is a waiting list should pages become available, first come-first served. Your family may share a message of best wishes, sentiments of congratulations, etc. You can also use this space to advertise your business. Given a space, you have to provide a PDF, print-ready copy by the end of October to grotttopics26@gmail.com. For a full page, there is a cost of $200. Half a page is $100 and one quarter of a page is $50. Make sure you submit your print-ready copy by the end of October. Include your name and phone number in the email so we know how to contact you.

4. The book will include a collage of parishioners standing in front of the grotto that houses the statue of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. If you have a picture of you or a loved one (living or deceased) in front of the Grotto you may submit it to be included in the collage. It can be in front of the old church on Ft. Weaver Rd. or in front of this existing church. Space is an issue, therefore when you submit your picture electronically, the date you submit it will be noted and the use of the pictures will be on a first come, first served basis. Only PDF electronic photos emailed to us are accepted. No hard copies. Email your submission to: grotttopics26@gmail.com and include your name and phone number please for contact purposes only.

MASS INTENTIONS

We pray for those who have gone before us. May their souls and all souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. We also offer prayers for healing, thanksgiving or for what ever intentions one might need to offer during the sacrifice of the Mass.
