Points of Reflection

- In the first reading, God had to remind the Chosen People of their obligation to love God with all their being and to love their neighbor as themselves. If they always did, there would have been no reason for an outcry from the widow and the orphan—from people who may not have loved ones of their own. The LORD mentions the people to whom they specifically need to show love: aliens, widows, orphans, and the poor. In each case, God points out that the person we think of "other" could well be ourselves. The Israelites were aliens themselves when in Egypt. A father's death would make his spouse a widow and, in that era, their children orphans. By nightfall, the creditor can become the debtor.
- We are called to love God because God loves us. God loves us unconditionally and has given us all the truly important things that we possess: life, forgiveness, redemption, and the promise of eternal life. We are called to love others because we are all God's children. So loving others is simply loving God's children. As we would expect people who love us to treat our children with love, so too would God expect us to treat God's other children with love. Moreover, as God has shown us that to love others is to give of oneself to others, God calls us to give of ourselves to our neighbor. To give of ourselves to others is to imitate God, which is a tangible way to love God in return.
- Saint Paul tells the early Christian community in Thessalonica how proud he is of them because they "became imitators of us and of the Lord" (1 Thessalonians 1:6). In so doing they "became a model for all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia," that is, the surrounding provinces (1:7). This is what we are called to do now. As a parish, we can imitate the love of Jesus Christ. In so doing, we can be a model for other parishes and the rest of the diocese for the ways in which we put that love into action.

Question of the Week

- How can I give of myself this week and to whom?

STEWARDSHIP QUOTES:

- Stewardship is an important concept for our spiritual growth as Catholics. It is a way of thanking God for all His blessings by returning to Him a portion of the time, talent and treasure we have received.
- "Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father" (Matthew 5:16)

Legacy Sunday — Beginning Your Legacy Journey

"Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."
— Matthew 6:21

How is Legacy Sunday different from the other times the Church asks parishioners for donations?

Unlike an Annual Appeal or Capital Campaign or a regular parish collection, Legacy Sunday is not to "ask and give now." Legacy Sunday encourages parishioners to plan for their own legacy and consider future gifts through their estate plans.

Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal

If you're still considering making a donation, it's not too late.

To participate and make your gift:

- Complete a pledge form. (Available at the church entrance or parish office).
- It can be a one-time or a recurring gift
- Or you can scan the QR Code here >
- Or visit the web: Appeal.CatholicHawaii.org.

Be sure that your gift is designated to Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish in Ewa Beach. Your donation supports the vital ministries of our Church across our Islands. Thank you for your prayerful support and generosity!

Couples Facing Infertility and NaPro Technology

The desire for a child is natural. However, it is not always possible for married couples to conceive. In the United States, it is estimated that one out of six couples have difficulty getting pregnant.

NaPro Technology (Natural Procreative Technology) is a type of Fertility Awareness Based Methods. It is derived from the Creighton Model Fertility Care System using biomarkers and the woman's natural cycle to determine her fertile periods as well as identifying hormonal irregularities and any physical anomalies. Sister Renee Mirkes, a Franciscan Sister of Christian Charity, director of NaPro Ethics Center and the medical staff at the St. Paul VI Institute in Omaha, Nebraska, work with couples . . . in this specialized medical and surgical approach to women's health, identifying the root causes of reproductive and gynecological issues. The beauty of this method is it aligns with Catholic teachings, cost less than IVF treatments and the percentage rate in having a baby is high.

The St. Gianna Clinic (stgiannclinic.com) is another center that focuses on healing the body naturally to achieve pregnancy rather than resorting to invasive assisted reproductive technologies like IVF.

Other resources to investigate are femmhealth.org pioneered by Dr. Pilar Vigil and naprotechnology.com led by Dr. Tom Hilgers. These centers offer a holistic approach to fertility in understanding the natural rhythms of the human body in term of procreation.

Springs in the Desert, is a 501(c)(3) Catholic non-profit support group that provides spiritual and emotional accompaniment to women and couples struggling with infertility and/or pregnancy loss. Contact Ann Koshute, co-founder of Springs in the Desert at springinthedesert.org for more information.

In Hawaii, contact Teresa Federicks at teresafedericks3@gmail.com to learn about the Billings Methods of Natural Family Planning. She has proven that Natural Family Method is still effective in planning a family.

Another local resource is Maile Domingo, President of Hamaui Loko Foundations who teaches classes on Natural Family Planning and Theology of the Body. Contact Maile at (808) 222-0644 or hamaui.loko.org.

The more we understand our bodies, the better we can make decisions that are healthy for us. It is never too early or too old to learn about the biological functions of our own bodies as God perfectly created it. (This is a redacted version of the article from Respect Life Ministry)
