Points of Reflection

- During this time of year, with the encroaching darkness of winter approaching, one can easily imagine how important oil lamps were in the days before electricity. All of the wedding attendants may have been prepared at first, but when the bridegroom became so long delayed that they all fell asleep, half had found themselves in the dark. When Matthew wrote his Gospel, forty years or more after the Resurrection, early Christians saw the second coming as long delayed as well. In fact, reading between the lines of Paul's letter to the Thessalonians, it appears he was trying to address their waning hope that those who had already died would be remembered in the resurrection. We cannot know the day nor the hour; all we can do is be prepared always.
- How do we prepare? We live our lives as Jesus taught us. We love God and love our neighbor. We strive to see Christ in the least of our brothers and sisters. We serve them in their need, realizing we are serving the Lord. We repent of our sins, realizing the kingdom is at hand. We give what we have to the poor and follow Jesus. We proclaim the gospel through our words and actions. We receive the Lord in the Eucharist, who nourishes us and sustains us on our journey. We remain steadfast in our faith and our hope that we will be found worthy of entering the kingdom.
- "Receive the light of Christ." We may not remember it, but when we were baptized the priest or deacon said these words as a candle was presented to the parents and godparents. This was a symbol that the newly-baptized member of the Church would always walk in the light of Christ. This candle was to be kept burning, figuratively, in our hearts all our lives. In order to sustain that flame, in order to keep our candles lit as the wise virgins kept their lamps lit, we need fuel. May our participation in the Sunday Eucharist provide us fuel for our faith.

Question of the Week

- What can I do this week to further prepare for the coming of the kingdom?

STEWARDSHIP QUOTES:

- God has given each of us some special abilities. It is important that we sue them to help one another, passing on to others the many blessings that God has given us.
- ". . . your surplus at the present time should supply their needs, so that their surplus may also supply your needs, that there may be equality" (2 Corinthians 8:14)

Legacy Sunday --- Beginning Your Legacy Journey

"Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."
— Matthew 6:21

How is Legacy Sunday different from the other times the Church asks parishioners for donations?

Unlike an Annual Appeal or Capital Campaign or a regular parish collection, Legacy Sunday is not to "ask and give now." Legacy Sunday encourages parishioners to plan for their own legacy and consider future gifts through their estate plans.

Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal

CCHD National Collection
November 14 & 15

Please be generous in the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). In the US, more than 45 million people live in poverty. With this collection you support vulnerable people across our country struggling to address and overcome the causes of persistent poverty. See Bishop Michael's Letter below.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE STATE OF HAWAII
DIOCESE OF HONOLULU
E HIKI MAI KOU AUPUNI

November 1, 2026

"The Lord is the refuge of the poor." Psalm 14:6

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Peace be with you!

Sunday, November 15, 2026, is the 10th World Day of the Poor, whose theme this year is "The Lord is the refuge of the poor." In his message for this day, Pope Leo XIV says, "Christians are called not only to seek refuge in God, but also to become a refuge for others in God… sharing as an expression of the Kingdom of God."

That same Sunday, our diocese parishes will hold the annual second collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). Through this U.S. Bishops' national initiative, support for CCHD assists the participation of persons experiencing poverty in our country to address this complex challenge and build a better future for all. Twenty-five percent of the funds collected for CCHD in our diocese stay right here in Hawai'i. Your contributions have helped local survivors to recover after natural disasters, provided transitional housing and job training for women coming out of prison, and supported non-profit organizations helping low-income families build and own affordable housing.

I wholeheartedly encourage all to give generously to this year's CCHD collection. During November, as we prepare our Thanksgiving tables, let us make room in our hearts—and in our giving—for all working to "build the Kingdom." Let us all celebrate the holidays as "one 'ohana," sharing our blessings and the words Jesus taught us and called us to pray and to live; "Thy Kingdom Come---E Hiki Mai Kou Aupuni." Mahalo!

Devotedly in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael T.T. Castori. SJ
Bishop of Honolulu
