Points of Reflection

- The portrayal of God as a shepherd goes back a long way. God directed Moses to lead the Chosen People from captivity to the promised land as a shepherd would lead their flock out of danger and into a verdant pasture. The psalmist sings of God as a generous shepherd who provides us with all we need. During the Babylonian exile, Ezekiel portrays God as a merciful shepherd who gathers all the scattered sheep, rescuing the lost, binding their wounds, and giving them rest. Finally, Jesus calls himself the Good Shepherd, telling them that he will lay down his life for his sheep.
- Pope Pius XI instituted the solemnity of Christ the King just over a hundred years ago—in 1925—as a response to the Great World War that had recently ended. Alarmed by the rise of nationalism, which divided God's children by their allegiance to their state, and fascism, which substituted the worship of Christ with the worship of a leader, he reminded Catholics of every nation that Jesus Christ is our true king. He must reign in our hearts and lives and so lead us to the true kingdom. Jesus, the Prince of Peace, will not allow enmity and discord to drive people or nations apart.
- When we pass a homeless person on the street begging for food, an undocumented immigrant looking for daywork, a mentally ill person shouting out at random, or a person behind bars, whom do we see? Do we see a failure who's taking our welfare dollars, an "illegal" who should be deported, a danger to the community who stopped taking their meds, or a criminal who doesn't belong on the streets ever again? Or do we see Jesus? Because if we don't see Jesus, we haven't heard this Gospel correctly. Because he tells us right here that it's him. No asterisks, no exceptions. The hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the naked, the ill, the imprisoned: they're Christ. May we leave today praying for the grace to see as Christ sees, so that we may see him right in front of us.

Question of the Week

- How have I failed recently to see Christ in those I'd rather not look at? What will bring me to see "these least ones" as Christ does?

STEWARDSHIP QUOTES:

- As we approach Thanksgiving Day, let us take a moment to consider all the blessings we received from God and how we in turn thank God for our blessings. Stewardship of our time, talent and treasure is not limited only to the Church. Many people give this to other groups in the community as well.
- "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be" (Luke 12:34)

Legacy Sunday --- Beginning Your Legacy Journey

"Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."
--- Matthew 6:21

How is Legacy Sunday different from the other times the Church asks parishioners for donations?

Unlike an Annual Appeal or Capital Campaign or a regular parish collection, Legacy Sunday is not to "ask and give now." Legacy Sunday encourages parishioners to plan for their own legacy and consider future gifts through their estate plans.

Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal

If you're still considering making a donation, it's not too late.
To participate and make your gift:

- Complete a pledge form. (Available at the church entrance or parish office). It can be a one-time or a recurring gift
- Or you can scan the QR Code here >
- Or visit the web: Appeal.CatholicHawaii.org.

Be sure that your gift is designated to Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish in Ewa Beach. Your donation supports the vital ministries of our Church across our Islands. Thank you for your prayerful support and generosity!
