

Introducing Company Giving

WHAT: Company Giving is designed to help businesses actively participate in Brazos Valley Gives. It provides a dedicated space for companies to share their story, rally employee involvement, and amplify their impact.

WHY: Company Giving empowers businesses to demonstrate their commitment to community engagement and philanthropy. It Inspires employees to contribute to causes that align with their values. Company Giving helps build stronger relationships with the community.

4 Key Benefits

Set and Track Goals

Companies can establish fundraising goals and measure their progress in real-time

Share Your Story

Businesses can highlight their connection to the community, why they support Brazos Valley Gives, and local causes they care about.

Boost Participation

Give employees a clear view of contributions, progress toward goals, and easy sharing tools

Strengthen Visibility

Showcase your company contributions on a public platform that amplifies your generosity

