MEET THE RECIPIENTS

I am Sita, wife of Rajendra Ram. My husband works as a daily wage laborer. There are ten people in my family, and I have been living in this village for the past 20 years. Previously, I had to collect water from a neighbor's well, which was about a five-minute walk from my home. However, getting water from there was very difficult for us because of our caste. We were only allowed to go in the evening, because the well owner was afraid of the community. They believed that if others saw us drawing water from their well, they would be excluded from society.

This situation made us feel very uneasy, but we had no other choice than to endure the hatred. Otherwise, we would have had to return to collecting water from the river, which I did not want to do. Later, my husband met a local Christian man who helped us receive this well. Now I have clean water in my own yard, and I no longer have to face the problems we experienced before. They also shared the word of God with us. Although our religion does not allow us to listen to the word of God because of our caste, I felt great love when they were here.

Thank you so much for the well and for sharing the word of God with us.

WELL REPORT

MEET THE PASTOR

I am a local pastor, and I have known this family for about three weeks. One of our believers asked me to visit them, and during my assessment I found that they were in great need of a clean water well. Now they have their own water, with no objections or rebukes from others. They are the owners of this well, and they are free to use it and care for it. I feel that, through this well, we have helped rescue a family from hatred and unfair treatment. They also had the opportunity to hear the gospel during the well dedication, and they listened very carefully. They have received a Bible as well. It is my prayer that this family will soon come to know the truth of God. I also pray for the community, that they would show love to their fellow neighbors. Thank you so much for providing this well.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PARTNERSHIP!
