¿POR QUÉ REZAMOS EL SANTO ROSARIO?

PERMITE DEFENDER LA FE: considerando los veinte misterios, se consideran las principales verdades de la fe cristiana

CON ÉL, PUEDES INTERCEDER POR LAS GRANDES INTENCIONES: rezando, por ejemplo, por el Papa, los frutos del Sínodo, las vocaciones, la paz mundial o el apoyo a los enfermos, te unes a la "comunidad de los santos";

ES UNA GARANTÍA DE SALVACIÓN: la Virgen María ha repetido en muchas apariciones que quien reza el Rosario diario no será condenado en la eternidad.

Why Do Catholics Worship Mary?

First of all, Catholics do not worship Mary. We honor her because she is the mother of Jesus. God himself honored Mary, by finding her worthy to be the mother of His only son. That is why we look up to her as our church's spiritual hero. God trusted Mary to love his son and take care of him and she did, all the way to the foot of the cross. We do not have a photograph of Mary to remember her by. Most people have photographs of their parents, grandparents and other ancestors, but we do not have any way of visually remembering Mary. That is why we have statues of Mary; they are like photographs of her.

HYPERDULIA
Honor Given to the Blessed Virgin Mary

The Hail Mary prayers that we pray during the rosary are really the scripture verse from the bible that the angel Gabriel greeted Mary with: 'Hail Mary full of grace'. We pray this scripture verse as a form of meditation that frees our mind to reflect on the life of Jesus. On the outside it sounds like we are only praying to Mary, but what is unseen is that we are thinking about the life of Jesus. Each time that we think about the stories about Jesus' life during the rosary, it is like offering a rose to Mary.

This is the only thing that Mary asks of us, that we love her son. Mary never calls attention to herself; she always directs our attention toward Jesus, her son, so that we will come to love Him too.

Your faith has saved you

Sunday Reflection

Besides being cured, what do Nathan (first reading) and the leper who thanked Jesus (Gospel) have in common? Both of them began to believe. Nathan proclaims Israel's God to be the only God. The only leper who returned to thank Jesus was "glorifying God in a loud voice" (Luke 17:15). It makes me wonder, what miracles do we see that help us grow in faith?

For an answer, we can look at a second thing they had in common: they both asked for help. Sometimes we get caught up in self-sufficiency mode, thinking we have to handle all our problems by ourselves. We may miss out on ways to solve those problems by not asking for help. If you think asking for help is a sign of weakness, you may be missing a chance for God to act through one of your friends and give you support. And, of course, you can ask God for help in prayer.

"STAND UP AND GO; YOUR FAITH HAS SAVED YOU."

We may have friends who help us in times of need or inspire us with their faith, but we have to decide to make a leap of faith ourselves. The third thing that Nathan and the leper did in common was express their faith. You can spend your whole life thinking that you are a Christian, but if you never express that faith, it will be just a theory. St. Paul in the second reading, for example, was suffering in prison,

Además de la curación, ¿qué tienen en común Natán en la primera lectura y el leproso que dio gracias a Jesús en el Evangelio? Ambos comenzaron a creer. Natán proclama que el Dios de Israel es el único Dios. El único leproso que regresó para agradecer a Jesús estaba "alabando a Dios en voz alta" (Lucas 17,15). Me pregunto: ¿qué milagros vemos que nos ayudan a crecer en la fe?

Para encontrar la respuesta, podemos considerar otra cosa que tenían en común: ambos pidieron ayuda. A veces nos dejamos llevar por la autosuficiencia, pensando que tenemos que resolver todos los problemas solos. Podemos perder maneras de resolverlos al no pedir ayuda. Si piensas que pedir ayuda es señal de debilidad, quizás estés perdiendo la oportunidad de que Dios actúe a través de uno de tus amigos y te brinde apoyo. Y, por supuesto, puedes pedirle ayuda a Dios en oración.

Así que escribió desde la cárcel con la esperanza de que otros cristianos se sintieran alentados en su fe. Quizás conozcas a alguien que te inspiró con su fidelidad y dedicación. Tener un amigo que nos ayude a crecer en la fe puede ser un milagro muy bonito.
