Sunday Reflection

One of the most beautiful aspects of our Catholic faith is the Communion of Saints. Whether it be the Church Militant still fighting the good fight here on earth, or the Church Suffering enduring their final time of purification in Purgatory, or the Church Triumphant rejoicing with our Lord in heaven, we are all in it together. We are one Church, united in the mysteries of the passion, death and resurrection of our Lord.

What makes this reality so beautiful is our ability to pray for one another, no matter what state of life we find ourselves in. It is an incredible circle of love and care that won't end until Christ comes again.

Today we celebrate the Church Suffering. It is a day to remember "those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith." Since our souls must be completely cleansed before entering the heavenly banquet, many of us will be required to endure this time of purification. Others will be permitted to undergo great hardships here on earth and be cleansed through them, with the aid of the sacraments.

Sometimes we may wonder why our loved ones are permitted to suffer but all of our earthly trials, when lived with faith, can be opportunities for purification for ourselves and others.

Today, let us pray for all the souls in purgatory, that they may soon gaze upon the glorious face of our Saviour, and may they in turn pray for us, that we may one day join them in Heaven.

Uno de los aspectos más hermosos de la fe católica es la Comunión de los Santos. Ya sea la Iglesia Militante que aún lucha la buena batalla aquí en la tierra, la Iglesia Sufriente que atraviesa su último tiempo de purificación en el Purgatorio, o la Iglesia Triunfante que se regocija con nuestro Señor en el cielo, todos estamos juntos en ella. Somos una sola Iglesia, unida en los misterios de la pasión, muerte y resurrección de nuestro Señor.

Lo que hace que esta realidad sea tan hermosa es nuestra capacidad de orar unos por otros, sin importar en qué estado de vida nos encontremos. Es un círculo increíble de amor y compasión que no terminará hasta que Cristo vuelva.

Hoy celebramos la Iglesia Sufriente. Es un día para recordar a quienes nos precedieron, marcados con el signo de la fe. Dado que nuestras almas deben estar completamente purificadas antes de entrar al banquete celestial, muchos de nosotros tendremos que pasar por este tiempo de purificación. A otros se les permitirá pasar por grandes dificultades aquí en la tierra y ser purificados a través de ellas, con la ayuda de los sacramentos.

A veces nos preguntamos por qué se permite que nuestros seres queridos sufran, pero todas nuestras pruebas terrenales, vividas con fe, pueden ser oportunidades de purificación para nosotros y para los demás. "Ofrecéelo" ya no es un cliché, sino un recordatorio para dirigir nuestra mente y corazón a Dios en momentos de dificultad.

Oremos hoy por todas las almas del purgatorio, para que pronto contemplen el rostro glorioso de nuestro Salvador, y que ellas, a su vez, oren por nosotros, para que un día podamos unimos a ellas en el Cielo.
