3 THINGS YOU MAY NOT KNOW ABOUT PURGATORY

- Purgatory is not a punishment, it is a state of purification.
- The souls in Purgatory can pray for us, but cannot pray for themselves.
- We must pray for the souls in Purgatory. The purification process can be painful! However, there is also great consolation from the assurance of salvation.

Sacramental and Devotional Practices that you can offer for the souls in purgatory

- Mass: Have a Mass said for a loved one or remember them during the Eucharistic Prayer.
- The Rosary: Pray the Rosary with the intention for the souls in purgatory. You can also add the Fatima prayer at the end of each decade.
- Eucharistic Adoration: Visit the Blessed Sacrament to make acts of reparation on their behalf.
- Confession: Receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation can make your prayers for the souls of others more effective.
- Indulgences: A plenary indulgence can be gained for the souls in purgatory by visiting a church, reciting the Our Father and Credo, and meeting other conditions.

Sunday Reflection

What’s all the fuss about buildings? Doesn’t the Bible tell us over and over again not to focus on material things but rather on the heart? Aren’t we supposed to focus on the Church rather than a church?

Well, if the Church has proclaimed this day a feast, then it must have some great significance, so let’s find it. The Archbasilica of St. John Lateran in Rome is the cathedral of the Bishop of Rome. His cathedra, his bishop’s seat, is found at St. John Lateran. This basilica was built on terrain donated by Emperor Constantine himself and celebrated the freedom of worship granted by the Edict of Milan. Wow.

Ok, so maybe this isn’t just any old church. It holds special significance, reminding Catholics of the courage of the early Christians who fought for freedom of religion and the unity of the universal Church with the Holy See.

This feast can serve as a reminder to us of the respect due our own parish church. Do we see it as a place of honor, reverence and community worship? Do we dress and act appropriately, considering we are in God’s presence? Do we offer ourselves together with Christ in the Eucharistic sacrifice, uniting ourselves with Catholics throughout the world?

May we celebrate our universal Church today and may we thank God for all of the churches that have been built and dedicated to allow us a space to worship freely. Maybe we should make a fuss about these beautiful buildings after all.

¿Por qué tanto alboroto por los edificios? ¿Acaso la Biblia no nos dice una y otra vez que no nos centremos en las cosas materiales, sino en el corazón? ¿No se supone que debemos centrarnos en la Iglesia más que en una iglesia? Bueno, si la Iglesia ha proclamado este día como fiesta, debe tener un gran significado, así que busquémoslo.

La Archibasílica de San Juan de Letrán en Roma es la catedral del obispo de Roma. Su cátedra, su sede episcopal, se encuentra en San Juan de Letrán. Esta basílica se construyó en un terreno donado por el propio emperador Constantino y celebraba la libertad de culto otorgada por el Edicto de Milán. ¡Qué increíble!

Bueno, entonces quizá no sea una iglesia cualquiera. Tiene un significado especial, ya que recuerda a los católicos la valentía de los primeros cristianos que lucharon por la libertad religiosa y la unidad de la Iglesia universal con la Santa Sede.

Esta fiesta puede servirnos como recordatorio del respeto que se debe a nuestra propia iglesia parroquial. ¿Lo consideramos un lugar de honor, reverencia y culto comunitario? ¿Nos vestimos y actuamos apropiadamente, considerando que estamos en la presencia de Dios? ¿Nos ofrecemos junto con Cristo en el sacrificio eucarístico, uniéndonos a los católicos de todo el mundo?

Celebremos hoy nuestra Iglesia universal y agradezcamos a Dios por todas las iglesias que se han construido y dedicado para brindarnos un espacio de culto libre. Tal vez debería haber mucho alboroto por estos hermosos edificios después de todo.
