SOLEMNITY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Day of Obligation

The doctrine of the Immaculate Conception is a cornerstone of Catholic belief, yet it's often misunderstood or confused with other aspects of Marian devotion. Mary's Immaculate Conception, defined as dogma in 1854, holds significant historical and theological importance within the Catholic Church. It reveals something profound about God's plan for humanity and the extraordinary role Mary plays in that plan. The Immaculate Conception teaches that from the very moment of her own conception, Mary was preserved from original sin, making her the perfect vessel to bring Jesus Christ, the Savior, into the world. This singular grace highlights the depth of God's love and foresight, and it underscores how vital Mary is in the story of salvation.

Sunday Reflection

Part of Isaiah's hopeful description of the Messiah contains the traditional seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit. As we prepare to celebrate the birth of the Messiah, and looking forward to His coming in glory, let's take a look at those gifts and see how we can use them.

Wisdom is the gift of seeing God in his creation. It means that we value the things of this world only as they help us to know and love God more. The second gift, Understanding, follows from Wisdom: we understand what God expects of us in dealing with creation and other people. This gift helps us to know how to act in a world that seems to ignore God.

Counsel follows from Understanding as the gift of making correct judgments on how to act; for example, Understanding can lead us to love others. Counsel guides us to love them in appropriate ways. Strength or fortitude, is the gift that enables us to do those things inspired by understanding and counsel, even if they are difficult. John the Baptist shows that gift in the gospel. It gave him the courage to die for his faith.

Knowledge is similar to counsel in that we begin to see what God wants for us in this world. Knowledge leads us to deeper revelations of the truths of our faith. This can lead to the sixth gift (seventh in Isaiah's text: "delight in the Lord") of Piety, a willingness to worship and love God, a desire to be close to Him in prayer.

The final gift, Fear of the Lord, is the awe and wonder of recognizing how great God is, how much he loves us, and so how much we want to stay close to Him. The desire to be close to God leads back to Wisdom, where we see God in his creation.

Parte de la esperanzadora descripción que Isaías hace del Mesías contiene los siete dones tradicionales del Espíritu Santo. Mientras nos preparamos para celebrar el nacimiento del Mesías y esperamos con ansias su venida en la gloria, analicemos estos dones y veamos cómo podemos utilizarlos.

La sabiduría es el don de ver a Dios en su creación. Significa que valoramos las cosas de este mundo solo si nos ayudan a conocer y amar más a Dios.

A + AR SERVERS

Meeting

Attention all altar servers and Parents there will be a meeting on December the 11th at 6:30pm in the Church. Please attend as it is very important to discuss the rest of the month's services. Also we invite all those interested in become alter service to attend as well. Thank you for your services and may God continue to Bless this community.

A Prayer for the Second Sunday of ADVENT

God of patience, show us your wisdom in time, that we may grow to expect your action on your time. Teach us to be gentle and patient with ourselves. Make us receptive to your timing in others. Help us see the long view when we are caught in the frustration of waiting. Amen.
