Sunday Reflection

What are you most proud of? What do you like to boast about? Were you top of your class in college? Do you work harder than anyone in your office? Everyone likes to have something they are the best at, or at least very good. But it really is kind of silly to base your own worth on what you accomplish. What truly makes us important is that we are loved by God.

Our second reading tells how God uses the foolish, weak, or poorest people to shame those who are wise, strong, and wealthy. Why? Because God loves the poor, the weak, the disabled, the homeless just as much as God loves the important people.

And it’s not just the external qualities that are important. Some wealthy people have great love for the poor. Some of the best teachers only work with disabled children. Our Gospel on the Beatitudes today makes that clear if you listen carefully. Blessed are not just the poor, but the poor in spirit; not only the hungry, but those who hunger for righteousness. That’s what Saint Paul means when he says, “Whoever boasts, should boast in the Lord” (1 Corinthians 1:31).

Progress Campaign 2026. Please Select St. Pius X. Set up one time donation or monthly recurring donation.

So how do we get to be “important” to God? Instead of asking God to make my projects a success, I can ask what God wants me to do. And for all the good that you do, remember to thank the Lord.

Blessed are the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

¿De qué te sientes más orgulloso? ¿De qué te gusta presumir? ¿Fuiste el mejor de tu promoción en la universidad? ¿Trabajas más duro que nadie en tu oficina? A todos nos gusta ser el mejor en algo, o al menos muy buenos. Pero es un poco absurdo basar tu propio valor en lo que logras. Lo que realmente nos hace importantes es que somos amados por Dios. La segunda lectura nos cuenta cómo Dios utiliza a los necios, débiles o pobres para avergonzar a los sabios, fuertes y ricos.

CONFIRMATION COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECT

Next Saturday February 8th, the Confirmation Students will be cleaning the church grounds from 8am-5pm. Please help us with drinks and snacks. You can bring your donations to the office.

¿Por qué? Porque Dios ama a los pobres, a los débiles, a los discapacitados y a los sin techo tanto como ama a las personas importantes.

Y no solo las cualidades externas son importantes. Algunas personas ricas tienen un gran amor por los pobres. Algunos de los mejores maestros solo trabajan con niños con discapacidad. El Evangelio de hoy sobre las Bienaventuranzas lo deja claro si escuchas atentamente. Bienaventurados no solo los pobres, sino los pobres de espíritu; No solo los hambrientos, sino también los que tienen hambre de justicia. A eso se refiere San Pablo cuando dice: “El que se gloría, que se gloríe en el Señor” (1 Corintios 1,31).

Entonces, ¿cómo llegamos a ser “importantes” para Dios? En lugar de pedirle que haga que mis proyectos sean un éxito, puedo pedirle qué quiere que haga. Y por todo el bien que hagas, acuérdate de agradecerle al Señor.
