Sunday Reflection

Jesus uses two different examples of a good disciple—salt of the earth and light of the world. While these images seem to have little in common, there are similarities, the most obvious being that a little of either goes a long way.

So also, a little faith can make a big difference. The faith of little children can bring his parents back to the Church. The way we live our faith can speak even louder. Isaiah gives us some hints in the first reading when he writes about feeding the hungry and giving shelter to the homeless and clothes to the poor.

But we sometimes get things backwards. If we do the things Isaiah tells the people to do, we might think that the deeds will give us faith. If we truly believe that God lives in the people around us, especially the poor, then we will want to show our love by caring for each other.

But if we don't have faith, then we are like the salt that has lost its flavor. A low-salt diet may be good for us; but a low-salt faith, instead of making things better, would make them worse.

Without faith in God's love for us, we would not respond with love of our own. We could still be a good person, but we would not be a very good disciple.

Jesús usa dos ejemplos diferentes de un buen discípulo: sal de la tierra y luz del mundo. Si bien estas imágenes parecen tener poco en común, existen similitudes; la más obvia es que un poco de cualquiera de las dos hace una gran diferencia.

Así también, un poco de fe puede hacer una gran diferencia. La fe de los niños pequeños puede hacer que sus padres regresen a la Iglesia. La forma en que vivimos nuestra fe puede hablar aún más alto. Isaías nos da algunas pistas en la primera lectura cuando escribe sobre alimentar a los hambrientos, dar techo a los sin techo y ropa a los pobres.

Pero a veces entendemos las cosas al revés. Si hacemos lo que Isaías les dice a las personas, podríamos pensar que las obras nos darán fe. Si realmente creemos que Dios vive en las personas que nos rodean, especialmente en los pobres, entonces vamos a querer demostrar nuestro amor cuidándonos unos a otros.

Pero si no tenemos fe, somos como la sal que ha perdido su sabor. Una dieta de baja sal puede ser buena para nosotros; pero una fe de baja sal, en lugar de mejorar las cosas, las empeoraría.

Sin fe en el amor de Dios por nosotros, no responderíamos con nuestro propio amor. Podríamos seguir siendo buenas personas, pero no seríamos muy buenos discípulos.
